

feel much improved today - -

I was really glad to hear you were all well but sorry to hear you felt lonesome, for I think it would be very pleasant to stay in Philadelphia awhile and see a little of the world out of Lexington - you say my welcome may be worn out - that I don't believe - for they not only appear to like me, but are fond of me, and offer me every inducement to stay - Mrs. Beaman says "tell Ina she is so much pleased with me as a specimen of a Kentucky girl that she is anxious for some more of the Philadelphians to know me - Mr. F. says tell her "I won't let you come" and Emma says I shan't think of such a thing.
It is so rare for me to be made a toast of that you can't wonder I like to stay - and then they live so nicely - my room is beautifully furnished with the handsomest rosewood furniture I ever saw - a looking glass reach-
