OUR LADY OF GETHSEMANI

TRAPPIST, KENTUCKY

June 1, 1959

Dear Victor:

Thanks for your letter and the proofs-- I am returning these with a couple of corrections.

J. Laughlin is not yet here, he was to have arrived this afternoon but probably will not get here until Wednesday. I think we can plan on being over in Lexington on Thursday or Friday. I will call you up Wednesday sometime and tell you definitely. Can we invite ourselves to lunch at your delightful place? I can think of nothing more pleasant. I do hope everything will work out nicely.

You must have had an active weekend! I hope you enjoyed it, and will have fully recovered by the time we descend on you. I am sure there will be many interesting things to talk about, but do not ~~expect~~ expect me to be wise about Sophia. Such lights as I have on that subject come most unaccountably, and at the moment I feel I have no lights on ~~ex~~ anything at all, which is a very solid kind of situation to be in. I ought to be in it more often.

Carolyn: a very good friend of mine who has connections at the Marquette University library, wonders about borrowing some of my material (the mss) from the U. of K. library and arranging a joint exhibit of such things with the collection they have there. I forget what on earth you might have there. Perhaps you could let me know in a general way. We'll talk about it; I do not know if we will have much time to spend in the library this trip however. Looking forward to seeing you both-- with all blessings

Faithfully in Christ

M. Louis
