JULIAN M. CARROLL

Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky

JULIAN MORTON CARROLL became Kentucky's 58th governor on December 28, 1974, succeeding Wendell H. Ford, who was elected to the U. S. Senate. Carroll then won a full four-year term in the 1975 general election. Born in McCracken County in 1931, he attended Paducah Junior College after graduating from Heath High School. He was graduated from the University of Kentucky in 1954 and received his law degree from UK in 1956. Before becoming governor, Carroll served three years as lieutenant governor and ten years as a member of the Kentucky House of Representatives. He is an active member of the Optimist Club and a former Jaycee. He attained the highest office in Kentucky for laymen of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in 1966-67 when he was named moderator of the Kentucky Synod. The Governor and his wife, Charlann, have four children.

H. FOSTER PETTIT

Mayor
Lexington-Fayette
Urban County Government

H. FOSTER PETTIT served two years as mayor of the City of Lexington and was a leader in the consolidation of the city and county governments. He was elected mayor of the Urban County Government in November 1973.

President of the Kentucky Municipal League for 1976, Mayor Pettit is also active with the U. S. Conference of Mayors and the National League of Cities. He was awarded the Optimist Cup in 1976 and the Chamber of Commerce Citizen-of-the-Year citation for 1975.

As chief executive of the Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government, the mayor is authorized to supervise, administer and control all departments of government.

The mayor is elected on a non-partisan basis every four years. He is responsible for the proper administration of all services of the government. He is assisted principally by the Chief Administrative Officer and commissioners of the six departments.

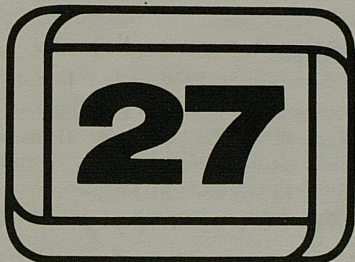

A native of Lexington, he is an attorney who served three terms as a state representative. He resides on Richmond Road with his wife, Marion, and four sons.

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

LOCATION—Lexington, Kentucky

FOUNDED—1865

ENROLLMENT—20,549 (on campus) 17,000 (at 13 Community Colleges)

HOME ARENA—Rupp Arena

NICKNAME—Wildcats

CONFERENCE—Southeastern

PRESIDENT—Dr. Otis A. Singletary

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR—Cliff Hagan

HEAD COACH—Joe B. Hall

Dr. Otis A. Singletary
University of Kentucky President

Now in his eighth year as president of the University of Kentucky, DR. OTIS A. SINGLETARY is a Mississippian whose route to the Bluegrass State curled through Louisiana, Texas, North Carolina and Washington, D. C.

He came to Lexington from a position as University of Texas vice-chancellor for academic affairs. Previously, in Washington, he had been director of the U. S. Job Corps in the early stages of its development before moving to the American Council on Education as vice-president. He had gone to the capital in 1964 after three years as chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

The UNC appointment terminated Dr. Singletary's first association with the University of Texas, this a seven-year stay that saw him, as a young historian, rise rapidly in rank from instructor to full professor and begin the shift to administrative work, first as associate dean and later as assistant to the president.

The Kentucky president, and his wife—the former Gloria Walton, met when both were students at Millsaps College. He later earned master's and doctoral degrees at Louisiana State. The Singletarys have two daughters, Bonnie and Kendall, and a son, Scott.

Cliff Hagan Director of Athletics

"I've been preparing for this all my life," CLIFF HAGAN said before taking over as athletics director at the University of Kentucky in 1975. Hagan succeeded Harry Lancaster as director after serving as assistant director for three years.

Hagan's path to the athletics directorship began in Owensboro, Kentucky, where he established a then state high school tournament record of 41 points in leading Owensboro to victory over Lafayette in the championship game of the 1949 state high school tournament.

At UK, he played on teams that won 86 of 91 games and an NCAA championship (1951). The 1954 team, undefeated in 25 games, elected not to participate in the national tournament.

Joe B. Hall

University of Kentucky Wildcats Head Basketball Coach

JOE B. HALL'S record as Wildcat head coach for the past four years stands at 79-36. During the 1976 season his team won the National Invitational Tournament and ended the year with a 20-10 record.

Hall became No. 1 varsity assistant and head freshman Coach to Rupp after Harry C. Lancaster was named permanent athletic director Feb. 1, 1969. His record with the freshmen was 60-15, including an undefeated (22-0) season (1971-72) which resulted in the Kittens being crowned National Freshman Champions by the Basketball News.

During his first season as head coach, the Wildcats won their last nine conference games to sew up the SEC title.

His ten-year coaching record is 155-92. Broken down, it shows a 57-50 five-year mark at Regis, a 19-6 record at Central Missouri, and a 79-36 four-year record at Kentucky.

A popular personality on the clinic and convention circuits, Hall also has had much international exposure. In addition to the Globetrotters tour in 1951, and the "Down Under" tour in 1974, he has helped conduct basketball clinics for the U.S. Army in Anchorage and Fairbanks, Alaska (1968) and at Ramstein Air Base in Frankfurt, Germany and the RAF Base at Mildenhall, England in 1975. He also was Olympic Trials coach under Hank Iba at the Air Force Academy in July 1972 and is a member of the 1976 Olympic Basketball Committee.

Coaching Assistants

DICK
PARSONS

DICK PARSONS, in his fifth year as Joe B. Hall's No. 1 assistant, returned to the University as baseball coach in 1969. Before giving up his position to join basketball on a full time basis, he molded a team (1971) which established or tied 15 school records.

LEONARD HAMILTON

Much of Kentucky's defensive prowess on the court can be credited to the talent of LEONARD HAMILTON, a third year assistant, who came to UK after three years as an assistant at Austin Peay State University.

JIM LONG

A native of Detroit, Michigan JIM LONG joined the UK staff last year as junior varsity coach and scout. In addition to his coaching duties, Long lends his talents to recruiting, scouting and directing UK's summer basketball camp.

ROY DON WILSON

Trainer

Entering his seventh year at UK is ROY DON WILSON, who came to the University after serving two years as trainer at The Citadel. A native of Texas, he is a graduate of Amon Carter Riverside High in Fort Worth. He received his B.S. degree from Texas A & M with a major in physical education and a minor in business. He is married to the former Patricia Jane Cotter of Houston. They have a son and a daughter.

WALT McCOMBS

Trainer

Returning to UK after a three-year absence during which he served in a similar capacity at Clemson University is WALT McCOMBS. Assigned primarily to basketball, McCombs also works with Wilson on the football field. A native of Belton, S. C., McCombs is a graduate of Parker High School and a 1971 graduate of The Citadel, where he was student trainer for four years. He was assistant trainer at UK in 1972 and '73. He is married to the former Shelby Burris of Belton.

There's nothing wrong with a little materialism.

We'll admit it. One of the selling features of Army ROTC is just plain cold cash . . . nearly $2000 during your junior and senior years of college. There's also the opportunity for full-tuition scholarships. And a $10,000 a year salary as an Army officer when you graduate.

But we've got other good things to offer you, too. College courses which challenge you both mentally and physically. Management training and experience you'll find valuable in civilian as well as military jobs. And instant leadership responsibility in your first job after college.

If any of this interests you, check out Army ROTC. And even if you enroll just for the money, you'll graduate with something worth a lot more . . . gold bars of an Army officer.

ARMY ROTC. LEARN WHAT IT TAKES TO LEAD.

Wildcats Of The Past

(PUBLISHER'S NOTE: Tonight we begin a series of articles on "Wildcats Of The Past" which will feature UK basketball players who hold special spots in the hearts of Kentucky fans. WILDCAT TIPOFF tonight spotlights Ed Beck and will feature "Cotton" Nash in the January 22 LSU program.)

Ed Beck lettered in basketball at the University of Kentucky in 1956, 57, and 58. He was a member of the 1956-57 team (23-5) that was ranked 3rd nationally in both the AP and UPI polls, was UKIT champion, SEC champion, Sugar Bowl champ and was a participant in the NCAA tourney.

Beck came to UK from Ft. Valley, Georgia. He was a rangy 6-7 center who sparked his Ft. Valley High team to two Class B state championships. He averaged 12 points a game in his senior year and was a Class B All-State Tournament choice for three successive seasons.

In his freshman year at Kentucky (1954-55) the UK Fact Book says of him, "Beck is regarded as one of the most highly promising prospects on the talent loaded freshman squad. Extremely agile and fast for his size, Ed has displayed an excellent hook shot as well as a good jump shot."

Other members of that "talented" freshman team were: Vernon Hatton, John Crigler, Phil Johnson, Billy Ray Cassady and Abraham Lincoln Collinsworth.

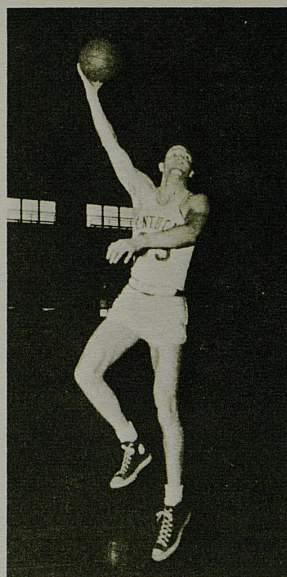

Beck was a licensed Methodist minister when he enrolled at Kentucky and while on the court a stellar pivotman, off the floor he held revivals, preached sermons, led prayer meetings and talked to Sunday School classes, youth meetings and civic clubs.

Beck wrote the following to Russell Rice, Sports Information Director at the University of Kentucky which Rice published in "Big Blue Machine", the story of Wildcat basketball.

"Dear Russ:

I was the first clergyman and may be the last ever to play for Rupp. There was some speculation upon my arrival in September of 1954 that I would not last long because of Adolph's projected gruff manner.

During the freshman season we approached the first Sunday practice and he called me into his office to state that if in any way practicing basketball on Sunday afternoon was against my religious feelings or sensitivities I would not have to practice and in no way would this hurt my chances with the team. I conveyed to him my feelings that first, it was not in any way against my religious principles and second, that

ED BECK

6-7 Center

I was a part of the team and wanted to participate when and where they did. I felt if any special consideration was given there might be some harm done. He was appreciative of my feelings but wanted to convey his understanding on whatever position I took.

... On more than one occasion at a practice he would quote the Bible and sometimes change words to communicate and with a twinkle in his eyes he would look at me and say, "That's what the good book says, doesn't it?"

The UK Fact Book for 1957-58 (Beck's senior year) says: "Every season Ed brings the pulpit and basketball together. He sets an example on the playing floor that is not only noteworthy from a character standpoint but also from an athletic point of view. Perhaps never, however, has an athlete been tested as Ed Beck was last season."

The testing was the strain of playing ball and attending school with the knowledge that his wife, Billie, lay dying of cancer in a Macon, Georgia hospital. After every visit to Macon, Billie urged Ed back to Lexington, UK and basketball. She saw him play once during that year—the Kentucky victory over Georgia Tech in Atlanta.

Ed Beck was a fine rebounder and defensive player who for the most part left the scoring to other members of the team. He served as president of the K Club (varsity lettermen) and was president of the College of Arts and Sciences senior class. He also was named winner of the Chandler Trophy, an award donated by radio station WVLK in the name of Governor A. B. Chandler for highest qualities of scholarship, leadership, character and ability.

Beck is presently Vice-President of Windmill Dinner Theatre Corporation in Dallas, Texas.

The Wildcats Bowed To The Volunteers 92-85 in Knoxville

KENTUCKY (85)		TENNESSEE (92)
Givens	18	Grunfeld	32
Lee	11	King	22
Phillips	20	Ashworth	6
Johnson	14	Jackson	28
Warford	12	Darden	4
Fowler	6
Claytor	4

Kentucky's last match with Tennessee, on the Volunteers' home court, was a 92-85 defeat for the Wildcats, that featured 7 technical fouls. Kentucky's Truman Claytor and Tennessee's Johnny Darden were ejected from the floor, along with two photographers from the Lexington Herald-Leader.

Tennessee won both games of the annual rivalry last season, the first sweep since 1967. Kentucky's powerful inside game led to a 48-48 tie at the half, with Mike Phillips contributing 18 points. Phillips was held to only 2 points in the second half by Tennessee's Doug Ashworth and a sagging inside defense that sometimes saw four men guarding the UK pivot man.

Tennessee was led in scoring by Ernie Grunfeld with 32 points, including 10 straight in a one minute and 15 second span in the first half. Mike Jackson, UT guard, shattered Kentucky's second half defense with 20 of his 28 points.

Claytor and Darden were ejected for fighting in the first half, and a dozen police officers poured on to the court to keep order. Both coaches were given technicals for protesting the call and in the ensuing struggle, two Herald-Leader photographers were sent from the building for entering the playing floor to take pictures.

Later in the contest, Grunfeld was assessed a technical for protesting a call, and Mike Phillips earned two technicals for the same infraction.

Kentucky leads in the series with Tennessee that dates back to 1910, 96 wins to 42 defeats.

(PUBLISHER'S NOTE: The Popular "Voice of the Wildcats", CAWOOD LEDFORD, is in his 24th season as play-by-play announcer for the University of Kentucky. Cawood, sports director for WHAS radio and television since 1958, has been broadcasting since 1951. He is recognized as a sports authority throughout the nation.

This column will appear in each Wildcat Tipoff this season, as "Cawood Reflects" on Wildcat basketball.)

CAWOOD
LEDFORD

I can remember some great basketball games between Kentucky and Tennessee. The rivalry in both Lexington and Knoxville is very strong. I know that in Coach Rupp's last season (1972), the Cats had to beat Tennessee to go to the NCAA tournament. They ended up tying for the conference championship, but Kentucky won both games that season. Tennessee was at the free throw line at the end of the game, but missed, so Kentucky came away a winner by one point.

I guess the game I remember most, and I can't even tell you the final score, was the first time Coach Rupp ever used a zone defense. Coach Rupp always maintained that he would never use a zone. He thought it ought to be outlawed, like it was in the pros. But the year the "Runts" were sophomores, they went into the 1-3-1, and it took Tennessee by surprise. You could tell the Volunteers had spent no time preparing for it, and the Cats came away a comfortable winner.

The Vols have had some great ball players. I think Ernie Grunfeld is a tremendous basketball player. He is super one-on-one. If he can isolate one defensive man on him, he is almost unstoppable. He's not real fast, but he's very strong, and he protects the ball very well. Bernard King is probably a better pro prospect, but at the college level, I have to go with Grunfeld as their best ever.

This might be the best Tennessee team ever. They are basically the same team that Coach Mears had last year, and they were runnersup in the conference. They are going to be a contender for the conference title this year and could end up in the top ranks.

ERNIE GRUNFELD 22

A naturalized United States citizen from Romania, Ernie Grunfeld is the proud possessor of an Olympic games gold medal. Grunfeld won the medal as a member of the U. S. team in Olympic competition at Montreal last summer.

A first team All-Southeastern selection by both wire services for three consecutive years, Grunfeld soared to the top of the league in scoring last season with a 25.3 average. He barely nipped teammate Bernard King, who finished at 25.2.

The talented combination of Grunfeld and King, sometimes called the "Ernie and Bernie show," gives Tennessee what may be the most potent one-two scoring punch in college basketball.

Grunfeld, who plays left wing for the Vols, is known around the SEC as the best one-on-one player in the league. He also has become adept at shooting off screen from the top of the circle.

BERNARD KING 53

Bernard King's talents as a basketball player are so awesome they are almost indescribable. Sports writers and sports broadcasters have about run out of superlatives in describing King's exploits.

King was named the UPI's Southeastern Conference player of the year in both his freshman and sophomore seasons. He not only led the SEC in scoring in 1974-76 with a 26.4 average, but also posted the highest mark in Tennessee history for a single season.

King and teammate Ernie Grunfeld give Tennessee the most potent one-two scoring punch in the SEC. Grunfeld's 25.3 average last season barely nipped King, with 25.2, for the SEC lead. King led the league in rebounds with 325 for a 13.0 average.

"King is the quickest basketball player I've been around in all the time I've been involved in the game," Coach Mears says.

A marked man in every game, King must work hard to get free long enough to get the ball, usually from 6 to 12 feet away from the basket.

1976-77 University of Tennessee Volunteers

Ray Mears University of Tennessee Head Basketball Coach

Ray Mears, who entered the 1975-76 season ranked as the nation's winningest coach, finished the campaign with an even shinier mark thanks to an overall record of 21 wins and six defeats.

The 21-6 worksheet figures to a percentage of .779, slightly better than the .743 mark that the Vol skipper compiled through the first 19 years of his collegiate coaching career.

When John Wooden retired from UCLA in 1975 after notching 10 NCAA championships, his place at the top of the coaching ladder was taken by Mears, who had enjoyed spectacular success in six years at Wittenberg (Ohio) University followed by 13 more seasons at Tennessee.

Through 20 years of college coaching, the 49-year-old Mears has a winning percentage of .745, reflecting an overall mark of 377-129. Mears was picked by AP among the top 10 coaches in the country twice in the last 10 years, fifth in 1967, tenth in 1971. At Tennessee his record is 256-106 for a percentage of .707.

Rupp Arena - New Lair For The Wildcats

"The Coliseum is giving way to progress and a growing fan interest in Kentucky basketball," said Joe Hall, "I played in old Alumni Gymnasium and spent 11 years in Memorial Coliseum as an assistant and then head coach and I am looking forward to an exciting future that awaits us at the Civic Center."

"There will never be another Memorial Coliseum . . . there will never be another Alumni Gym . . . but hopeful, we will have the Kentucky spirit and exciting basketball in the brand new 23,000 seat Rupp Arena."

Lower seating and concourse plan, High Street elevation. All public facilities serving Rupp Arena are located on this concourse. This includes restrooms, telephones, first aid station, drinking fountains, and refreshment stands.

U. K. Student Code of Sportsmanship

We, the students of the University of Kentucky, having an abiding faith in the value of intercollegiate athletics as an instrument in promoting friendly relations among universities, do adopt this code of sportsmanship:

- (1) Winning or losing, an athletic team of the University of Kentucky will have our continued and wholehearted support.
- (2) We expect our teams to measure up to the highest ideals in sportsmanship, and we pledge that our conduct shall be equally praiseworthy.
- (3) The visiting team and coaches, and the officials are our guests. As such, they deserve our respect, courtesy and hospitality.
- (4) We shall always abide by the regulations of the University governing the use of the athletic facilities.
- (5) Bearing in mind the rich athletic traditions of the University of Kentucky, we pledge ourselves to a standard of conduct which will uphold and expand this tradition for the future.
- (6) We call upon all who join us in the support of the University of Kentucky athletic teams to join us likewise in support of this code.
