JULIAN M. CARROLL

Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky

JULIAN MORTON CARROLL became Kentucky's 58th governor on December 28, 1974, succeeding Wendell H. Ford, who was elected to the U. S. Senate. Carroll then won a full four-year term in the 1975 general election. Born in McCracken County in 1931, he attended Paducah Junior College after graduating from Heath High School. He was graduated from the University of Kentucky in 1954 and received his law degree from UK in 1956. Before becoming governor, Carroll served three years as lieutenant governor and ten years as a member of the Kentucky House of Representatives. He is an active member of the Optimist Club and a former Jaycee. He attained the highest office in Kentucky for laymen of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in 1966-67 when he was named moderator of the Kentucky Synod. The Governor and his wife, Charlann, have four children.

H. FOSTER PETTIT

Mayor
Lexington-Fayette
Urban County Government

H. FOSTER PETTIT served two years as mayor of the City of Lexington and was a leader in the consolidation of the city and county governments. He was elected mayor of the Urban County Government in November 1973.

President of the Kentucky Municipal League for 1976, Mayor Pettit is also active with the U. S. Conference of Mayors and the National League of Cities. He was awarded the Optimist Cup in 1976 and the Chamber of Commerce Citizen-of-the-Year citation for 1975.

As chief executive of the Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government, the mayor is authorized to supervise, administer and control all departments of government.

The mayor is elected on a non-partisan basis every four years. He is responsible for the proper administration of all services of the government. He is assisted principally by the Chief Administrative Officer and commissioners of the six departments.

A native of Lexington, he is an attorney who served three terms as a state representative. He resides on Richmond Road with his wife, Marion, and four sons.

CONFERENCE—Southeastern

PRESIDENT—Dr. Otis A. Singletary

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR—Cliff Hagan

HEAD COACH—Joe B. Hall

Dr. Otis A. Singletary
University of Kentucky President

Now in his eighth year as president of the University of Kentucky, DR. OTIS A. SINGLETARY is a Mississippian whose route to the Bluegrass State curled through Louisiana, Texas, North Carolina and Washington, D. C.

He came to Lexington from a position as University of Texas vice-chancellor for academic affairs. Previously, in Washington, he had been director of the U. S. Job Corps in the early stages of its development before moving to the American Council on Education as vice-president. He had gone to the capital in 1964 after three years as chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

The UNC appointment terminated Dr. Singletary's first association with the University of Texas, this a seven-year stay that saw him, as a young historian, rise rapidly in rank from instructor to full professor and begin the shift to administrative work, first as associate dean and later as assistant to the president.

The Kentucky president, and his wife—the former Gloria Walton, met when both were students at Millsaps College. He later earned master's and doctoral degrees at Louisiana State. The Singletarys have two daughters, Bonnie and Kendall, and a son, Scott.

Cliff Hagan
Director of Athletics

"I've been preparing for this all my life," CLIFF HAGAN said before taking over as athletics director at the University of Kentucky in 1975. Hagan succeeded Harry Lancaster as director after serving as assistant director for three years.

Hagan's path to the athletics directorship began in Owensboro, Kentucky, where he established a then state high school tournament record of 41 points in leading Owensboro to victory over Lafayette in the championship game of the 1949 state high school tournament.

At UK, he played on teams that won 86 of 91 games and an NCAA championship (1951). The 1954 team, undefeated in 25 games, elected not to participate in the national tournament.

Joe B. Hall

University of Kentucky Wildcats Head Basketball Coach

JOE B. HALL'S record as Wildcat head coach for the past four years stands at 79-36. During the 1976 season his team won the National Invitational Tournament and ended the year with a 20-10 record.

Hall became No. 1 varsity assistant and head freshman Coach to Rupp after Harry C. Lancaster was named permanent athletic director Feb. 1, 1969. His record with the freshmen was 60-15, including an undefeated (22-0) season (1971-72) which resulted in the Kittens being crowned National Freshman Champions by the Basketball News.

During his first season as head coach, the Wildcats won their last nine conference games to sew up the SEC title.

His ten-year coaching record is 155-92. Broken down, it shows a 57-50 five-year mark at Regis, a 19-6 record at Central Missouri, and a 79-36 four-year record at Kentucky.

A popular personality on the clinic and convention circuits, Hall also has had much international exposure. In addition to the Globetrotters tour in 1951, and the "Down Under" tour in 1974, he has helped conduct basketball clinics for the U.S. Army in Anchorage and Fairbanks, Alaska (1968) and at Ramstein Air Base in Frankfurt, Germany and the RAF Base at Mildenhall, England in 1975. He also was Olympic Trials coach under Hank Iba at the Air Force Academy in July 1972 and is a member of the 1976 Olympic Basketball Committee.

Coaching Assistants

DICK
PARSONS

DICK PARSONS, in his fifth year as Joe B. Hall's No. 1 assistant, returned to the University as baseball coach in 1969. Before giving up his position to join basketball on a full time basis, he molded a team (1971) which established or tied 15 school records.

LEONARD HAMILTON

Much of Kentucky's defensive prowess on the court can be credited to the talent of LEONARD HAMILTON, a third year assistant, who came to UK after three years as an assistant at Austin Peay State University.

JIM LONG

A native of Detroit, Michigan JIM LONG joined the UK staff last year as junior varsity coach and scout. In addition to his coaching duties, Long lends his talents to recruiting, scouting and directing UK's summer basketball camp.

ROY DON WILSON
Trainer

Entering his seventh year at UK is ROY DON WILSON, who came to the University after serving two years as trainer at The Citadel. A native of Texas, he is a graduate of Amon Carter Riverside High in Fort Worth. He received his B.S. degree from Texas A & M with a major in physical education and a minor in business. He is married to the former Patricia Jane Cotter of Houston. They have a son and a daughter.

WALT McCOMBS
Trainer

Returning to UK after a three-year absence during which he served in a similar capacity at Clemson University is WALT McCOMBS. Assigned primarily to basketball, McCombs also works with Wilson on the football field. A native of Belton, S. C., McCombs is a graduate of Parker High School and a 1971 graduate of The Citadel, where he was student trainer for four years. He was assistant trainer at UK in 1972 and '73. He is married to the former Shelby Burris of Belton.

Wildcats Of The Past

The honors which came to the wearer of jersey no. 42 during the seasons of 1965-67 would probably fill a book, but Pat Riley's biggest honor was being a Kentucky Wildcat. Personally signed by Coach Rupp, to whom Riley confided that he had always wanted to come to Kentucky to play basketball "since I was a young kid." Pat remembered seeing and hearing about the great UK teams of the early fifties who visited New York and the East.

During an outstanding, three-year career at Schenectady's Linton High School, Riley alternated between guard, center and forward and scored an even 1,000 points. In his final schoolboy season he connected on an average of 29.5 and went over 40 in each of the final four games.

Riley, at 6'3½", played at the forward position on the Wildcat team but jumped center at both opening and half-time of each game. During the 1965-66 season he lost only 3 of 58 taps.

During Pat's sophomore year the Cats posted a 15-10 record and Riley scored on the average of 15 points. During the next season, 65-66, Riley, Louie Dampier, Thad Jaracz, Tommy Kron and Larry Conley were soon tagged "Rupp's Runts" because the tallest member of the team (Jaracz) was 6'5". Riley had a fine game against Notre Dame in Freedom Hall, scoring 36 points and holding Irish scoring ace Jim Monahan to seven points in Kentucky's 103-69 win.

Kentucky finished the season with only one loss—to Tennessee and advanced to the regionals of the NCAA tournament. In the first game Pat scored 29 points against Dayton and repeated the performance the following night to boost the Cats into the semi-finals. In the Duke game, Riley injured a toe on his right foot but did not mention it to the team physician. That combined with a back injury received in a water skiing accident at Herrington Lake kept Pat in constant pain the following year.

According to Russell Rice's "Big Blue Machine": "He took pills for relief in the daytime and was strapped with weights and pulleys—in traction—each night. Rupp thought about holding him out of competition, but he needed even a sub-par Riley that year."

"Soon as Pat warmed up, he would come over to the bench," Rupp said. "He would say, 'Coach, I haven't got it tonight,' or 'I'm going to be all right.'"

Shortly after the season was over, Pat underwent surgery for the removal of two slipped discs in his back.

Pat wrote to Russell Rice: "I remember the year that we almost won it all and Coach Rupp and I were going up to Schenectady, New York, for 'Pat Riley Day' in which he came for nothing. He would always do something for his boys if you ever needed it. I believe he really felt deeply for us all but had to keep this hard shell around himself to maintain discipline. Anyway when we were on the plane he asked me if I needed anything and I said, 'No'. He asked if there was anything special he should say at the banquet or to my parents and I said 'No'. He asked me if there was any cash in my pockets and I said, 'No'. So knowing Coach Rupp and how he was about any of his boys getting something extra other than what their scholarships called for, I was greatly surprised when he pulled out a $50 bill and said, 'Here, in case you have to buy your cronies some Cokes at home'. He is a great man."

Pat's career at Kentucky was filled with honors: he ranked ninth in the list of top all-time Kentucky scorers for a varsity career—during his three years in a Wildcat uniform he played in 80 games and compiled 1,464 points for an average of 18.3. In 1966 Pat was the top regular season scorer with an average of 21.6. He and Louie Dampier tied for the Chandler Trophy in 1967, in '65 he received the Kiwanis 110 Percenter Award, was All-SEC in '65 and '66, on the All-NCAA tournament team in '66 and was named the Most Valuable Player in the NCAA Regional tourney the same year. Pat has one little mentioned honor, he holds the record for the most personal fouls for three seasons—394.

According to Coach Rupp, Pat Riley was "one of the most complete athletes I ever coached."

After graduation, Riley played professional basketball with the Los Angeles Lakers and was then traded to the Phoenix Suns. He retired at the end of last season and presently lives in the Los Angeles area.

Mail will reach him through the Lakers office: Pat Riley, Los Angeles Lakers, P. O. Box 10, Englewood, Calif. 90306.

The LAST TIME

The Wildcats used every play they knew to come away with a victory the last time Kentucky played the Vanderbilt Commodores. The game, earlier this season in Nashville, saw Vandy coach Wayne Dobbs in his first try at beating Kentucky, start a lineup that included three freshmen.

James Lee came off of the Kentucky bench to garner 12 points and eight rebounds in 18 minutes of play. Truman Clayton, assigned to guard the Commodores Dicky Keffer, blunted Vandy's penetration which stopped the back door baskets which had been frequent until then.

The Wildcats escaped with a 64-62 victory on a last second shot by Rick Robey. Coach Hall registered his second win in the Commodores Memorial Gym in five years.

(PUBLISHER'S NOTE: The Popular "Voice of the Wildcats", CAWOOD LEDFORD, is in his 24th season as play-by-play announcer for the University of Kentucky. Cawood, sports director for WHAS radio and television since 1958, has been broadcasting since 1951. He is recognized as a sports authority throughout the nation.

CAWOOD
LEDFORD

For many years Kentucky and Vanderbilt have had the same basketball philosophies: run and gun and the fast break. I think that the two teams always look forward to playing each other and they are usually great crowd pleasing games.

Neither team ever came up with anything fancy, they just went out there and played like the dickens and the best team won. There have been some great games and of course Vandy was one of the teams that came to the top to challenge Kentucky after the Wildcats had dominated the league for so long. It's been a good series and it's usually exciting, just like it was the first time this year when Kentucky won by two points.

I'd have to say that the two best games that Kentucky and Vanderbilt ever played were both, strangely enough, at Vandy. One was when Earl "Brother" Adkins came off the bench and scored up in the twenties. He hadn't played a great deal and that night saved Kentucky and carried the Wildcats to victory. In the other game, Louie Dampier had a phenomenal night. They were concentrating very heavy on the inside and Louie, just barely to the right of the top of the circle, started hitting that little jump shot. I believe he had about 40 or 42. Kentucky won really big that night.

The best Vandy player I ever saw was Clyde Lee. He was an All-American at Vanderbilt. I think that he has become the standard by which Vanderbilt people judge their basketball players.

By starting three freshmen, the Commodores haven't won a lot of games, but they've played everybody close. They took Louisville, a nationally ranked team, into overtime. Kentucky was lucky to get out of there with a two point win. I think that being freshmen will hurt them on the road. I don't think they are going to have a great won-lost record this year, but it's a team with a future in the SEC.

1976-77 Vanderbilt Commodores

Wayne Dobbs Vanderbilt University Head Basketball Coach

Basketball is the dominant influence in WAYNE DOBBS' life. It is tireless dedication and hard work that made Dobbs Vanderbilt's pick to succeed Roy Skinner when the veteran Commodore head coach stepped down last March after 16 years at the helm.

"Wayne Dobbs has all the qualities necessary to be a successful head coach on the major college level," noted Vanderbilt Athletic Director Clay Stapleton in announcing the 37-year-old Georgia native's appointment to the head job. "Wayne has his finger on the pulse of our program and therefore I think we would be less than intelligent to look elsewhere for a coach."

Dobbs served as an assistant coach under Skinner for six years prior to his promotion.

Rupp Arena - New Lair For The Wildcats

"The Coliseum is giving way to progress and a growing fan interest in Kentucky basketball," said Joe Hall, "I played in old Alumni Gymnasium and spent 11 years in Memorial Coliseum as an assistant and then head coach and I am looking forward to an exciting future that awaits us at the Civic Center."

"There will never be another Memorial Coliseum . . . there will never be another Alumni Gym . . . but hopeful, we will have the Kentucky spirit and exciting basketball in the brand new 23,000 seat Rupp Arena."

Lower seating and concourse plan, High Street elevation. All public facilities serving Rupp Arena are located on this concourse. This includes restrooms, telephones, first aid station, drinking fountains, and refreshment stands.

Arena Information

FIRST AID

The University of Kentucky and the Lexington Center provide for your convenience and welfare, a First Aid Station on the Purple Concourse. Persons with any type of chronic medical problem are requested to leave their name and seat location with the nurse on duty at the First Aid Station. A person in need of assistance with a health emergency should report the situation immediately to an usher. Doctors on call and other individuals who might expect an emergency call are requested to leave their name and seat location at the will call window of the box office prior to entering Rupp Arena. In the event of an emergency, you will be notified at your seat. In order that the activities and program in Rupp Arena not be disrupted, paging over the public address system is not possible.

CARDIAC CARE

In cooperation with the University Medical Service, the University of Kentucky provides a cardiac resuscitation program at all UK basketball games.

LOST AND FOUND

Lost and found articles should be reported or turned in to an usher or a security officer. You may wish to write to the director of arena security and describe lost articles which will be returned if found.

NO HORNS

Horns are not permitted in Rupp Arena and will be picked up at the entrances. Be considerate and allow your neighbor to enjoy the game. Keep portable radios at a low volume.

U. K. Student Code of Sportsmanship

We, the students of the University of Kentucky, having an abiding faith in the value of intercollegiate athletics as an instrument in promoting friendly relations among universities, do adopt this code of sportsmanship:

- (1) Winning or losing, an athletic team of the University of Kentucky will have our continued and wholehearted support.
- (2) We expect our teams to measure up to the highest ideals in sportsmanship, and we pledge that our conduct shall be equally praiseworthy.
- (3) The visiting team and coaches, and the officials are our guests. As such, they deserve our respect, courtesy and hospitality.
- (4) We shall always abide by the regulations of the University governing the use of the athletic facilities.
- (5) Bearing in mind the rich athletic traditions of the University of Kentucky, we pledge ourselves to a standard of conduct which will uphold and expand this tradition for the future.
- (6) We call upon all who join us in the support of the University of Kentucky athletic teams to join us likewise in support of this code.

Maybe you didn't know that Ashland is more than an oil company . . .

We're America's leading independent refiner and marketer of petroleum products. We have seven modern refineries with a combined crude oil processing capacity of approximately 400,000 barrels a day . . .

We're a chemical industry leader; we operate chemical and mineral product manufacturing and distribution facilities in 28 states and 13 foreign countries . . .

We're the world's largest highway paver, a versatile construction company and a builder of offshore drilling platforms and drill ships . . .

We're one of the top 10 coal producers in the nation with interests in Alabama, Illinois, Wyoming, Kentucky, Tennessee and West Virginia . . .

. . . but you should.

Ashland Oil, Inc.

Ashland Oil . . . Kentucky's largest corporation, with sales in excess of $4 billion.
