Dear General Williams,

Well, I'm here again and I hope to surely see you soon, tho' I'm afraid you will have been gone from some time I.

I was very sorry that everything went wrong when I was here in December.

I arrived from Coblenz on "May Day" quite all in from a return attack of rheumatism. I'm out here, very pleasantly situated and expect to be here this week. If you have the time, it will be good to talk over at, at least, think of the days when human beings suffered. Hoping to see you soon, Dear.

Brigadier General Roger D. Williams,

Sincerely
Burr McIntosh
