OBJECTS

"For God and Country we associate ourselves together for the following purposes:

To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred per cent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the Great War; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness."

December 8, 1919.

Mr. Roger D. Williams,
Lexington, Kentucky.

Dear Sir:-

A special meeting of the National Executive Committee is called for 10:00 o'clock, December 20, 1919, at National Headquarters, Meridian Life Building, Indianapolis, Indiana. Please advise us immediately whether or not it will be possible for you to attend the meeting as I am requested to wire names of the representatives from Kentucky who will attend in order that proper hotel accommodations may be arranged. I will thank you to give this your immediate attention in order that I may comply with the request of National Headquarters.

I am enclosing herewith Bulletin No. 1, with reference to Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion, which bulletin I have been directed to call to your attention.

Yours very truly,

D. A. Sachs, Jr.,
Department Adjutant,
State of Kentucky
