PROUD PLANS

WOMEN'S NEWS

The following is a continuation of an excerpt from Our Right to Love, a Lesbian Resource Book, which was produced in cooperation with women of the National Gay Task Force. The book was published in 1978 and is now out of print.

WOMAN TO WOMAN: LESBIAN INTIMACY

...The difference in "blind spot" between two women living together and two men doing the same is quite interesting. In the case of two men, everyone seems capable of imagining what they can do together, even if it is the "love that dare not speak its name." With women, all aspects of the relationship are granted as acceptable except any sexual dynamic, which is either unimaginable or unthinkable. Women are almost expected to be intimate emotionally with each other. It is a well-recognized fact that communication is different between two women, a woman and a man, and between two men. A rather amusing illustration was provided by the early attempts to form all-male CR groups using the model of the CR groups that have been so helpful to many women. In one case the men were told that they could talk about anything except business, sports, cars, politics, and religion. There was silence for ten minutes! Women are far more used to discussing feelings with each other than men are. As a result, it is scarcely surprising that society has recognized that two women are very capable of giving each other emotional support. After all, women have been defined almost exclusively as emotional. To carry the point a bit further, since men are given less credit for being able to give each other such support, it is hardly surprising that straight people's minds wander to other topics when two men live together. The difference is easily demonstrated: In most communities two women can walk down the street holding hands and few people will notice. If two men do it, they may be arrested for inciting a riot!

DON'T FORGET THE GLSO POTLUCKS

AT RAZZMATAZZ,

FIRST SUNDAY OF EACH MONTH,

AT 3 PM

ASK AUNT MARY

Dear Readers: This month I received several letters, all asking basically the same question: How do I meet someone interested in more than a one night stand? I'm tired of spending my time in adult bookstores and bars where I meet people who are only interested in sex, or else I don't meet anyone at all. I know there must be a better way, but I haven't figured it out yet. What do you suggest?

Well, I suggest several courses of action, all of which I have mentioned many times before but are worth going over one more time. First of all, each of you wrote to me care of GLSO, an organization dedicated to serving the gay and lesbian community in Lexington and Central Kentucky. Each and every month they sponsor meetings, discussion groups, support groups, potluck dinners and other events. During summer months there are also frequent volleyball-in-the-park picnics and during the winter months there is a bowling league. Plus, in just a couple of weeks this year's Gay Pride Week activities begin. All of these meetings and events are designed to be low keyed and non-threatening to newcomers and regulars alike. What better atmosphere to meet new people and really be able to talk to them and get to know them? So, to those of you who have been writing, I ask, where have you been, alone and lonely, while we have been so busy trying to put on things of interest at which you will feel comfortable?

Another really good way to meet people is to VOLUNTEER. Volunteers are always needed and it is a sure way to meet people who share an interest with you. Now I'm sure you can see this coming, but co-incidentally, GLSO needs volunteers for several of its programs, including the newsletter, phonenumber, speakers bureau and many others. Have ya'll been reading your newsletters?

For those of you of a religious nature, you really should take the time to meet the people involved with Dignity (gay and lesbian Catholics and their friends) and Interweave (gay and lesbian Unitarians - and even an Episcopalian - and their friends). I don't want this to come as a surprise to you, but you can find information on both of these groups in this very newsletter!

ACT-Lexington, also listed in this newsletter, would love to hear from any of you

GAY COFFEEHOUSE AND DANCE

GLSO is in the process of organizing a regular coffeehouse and dance that will occur on one Friday evening each month. The first will be on June 12th at 8 pm to coincide with Gay Pride Week. We will then switch to the 3rd Friday of each month, starting with July. We are interested in offering both gay men and lesbians an opportunity to socialize, dance, and experience a variety of gay entertainment. We need volunteers for all phases of planning, including music, public relations, refreshments, serving, and entertainment for the coffeehouse. If you are or know someone who enjoys performing - dance, readings, live music, lip sync, comedy, MC's, etc. - please contact GLSO or attend our next organizational meeting on May 20th at 8 pm. For more information call Laura at 231-7985 or Janette at 254-2483.

VOLLEYBALL RETURNS!

Summer volleyball has resumed at Jacobsen Park on alternate Friday's, so pack your picnic basket and head out to Shelter #5 on June 5th and 19th. Bring food or beverage to share because the fun starts at 6:30 pm. Fun, food, and exercise make a great combo. Remember though, we don't play in the rain. See you in the Park on the 5th.

interested in helping disseminate information about AIDS to the community.

Finally, do you like photography, literature, creative writing, yoga, painting, etc., etc...? There are classes at nearly every University of College in the state for adults who would like to pursue their interests. Why not get involved and meet people who share your interests? This is an opportunity to make new friends, gay and straight, who can help you meet even more people.

So, the next time you have a discouraging night at one of the bars, remember, your Aunt Mary says, "I told you so!"

If you would like to write to Aunt Mary, address your letter to: Aunt Mary, %GLSO, P.O. Box 11471, Lexington, KY 40575. For a personal reply, please include a stamped self-addressed envelope. All names are strictly confidential.

AIDS UPDATE

HOW MANY MEN HAVE YOU HAD SEX WITH IN THE LAST TEN YEARS?

At present, 17 per cent of all people being tested for the HIV virus are turning up positive. This figure holds true not only in large cities with the highest number of AIDS cases, but also right here at home in Lexington, KY. Yep, Aunty Em. Right in our own back yard. That means that one out of every six people in Lexington who have taken the HIV test have been exposed to the virus. It also means that chances are very high that anyone who has had sex with six or more gay men or intravenous drug users since the late 1970's has been exposed to the AIDS virus.

Pretty scary, isn't it? But anyone who consistently has Safe Sex, or is careful not to use other's hypodermic needles, stands a much, much better chance of not being exposed to the virus. Think about it - for your life's sake. Please be careful! We gay people are, truthfully, about all we've got. We need each other now more than ever.

THE NEXT GOVERNOR AND AIDS

On May 7th the Lexington Herald Leader reported the response of each gubernatorial candidate to the question, "Should the state keep a list of all people who are carriers of the acquired immune deficiency syndrome virus if it remains confidential?" They answered:

Beshear:	Yes
Brown:	Undecided
Carroll:	Yes
Stumbo:	Yes
Wilkinson:	Undecided
Harper:	Yes
Johnson:	Yes

As we prepared this issue for press we didn't know the outcome of the May primary, but the results are now in. Who won, and how does his answer to this question compare to your personal opinion?

We all know AIDS is a question of life and death. You should expect it to become an increasingly important political issue because of the magnitude of the problem, and because of the fear it generates.

CONSUMER'S GUIDE TO CONDOMS

Ever wonder what the "experts" say about condoms? Well, according to Clark Taylor and Jim Garner, these are the best, along with their "vital statistics."

In "Lubed" category, the Sheik condom was recommended. The Sheik condom has a width of 2.13" and length of 8" with a reservoir end. It's color is opaque and it's known for being strong, stretchy, and inexpensive.

Among Non-lubed condoms, Taylor and Wilson recommend the Gold Circle (not the department store!) condom. The Gold Circle condom has a width of 1.9" and a length of 7.5" with rippled sides and a reservoir end. It's color is clear and is thin with no smell or taste. This condom was distributed at The Bar by ACT-Lexington during Valentine's Day Weekend.

Whichever condom you choose, remember what the United States Surgeon General says (much to the dismay of many in the Reagan cabinet), "next to abstinence the best protection against AIDS is the use of a condom." Happy shopping!

Call to Action for a new

March on Washington for Lesbian and Gay Rights

"Depriving individuals of the right to choose for themselves how to conduct their intimate relationships poses a far greater threat to the values most deeply rooted in our nation's history than tolerance of nonconformity could ever do." —U.S. Supreme Court Justice Harry Blackmun, dissenting from the Court's 1986 ruling that upholds sodomy laws

October 11, 1987

FROM DIGNITY'S PRESIDENT

It's Gay Pride Month across the country, communities like ours will be celebrating the 18th anniversary of the Stonewall Riots of June 27, 1969.

I am amazed at the progress lesbian and gay people have made. Twenty years ago nearly everyone was in the closet. Today some of us are out to everyone, or at work, or to friends, or to family - but at least today we are out to ourselves and each other.

We see the possibility of a good life as a lesbian or gay person as a real possibility. It's possible to have the opportunity to be out, well-adjusted, valued, appreciated, in love, treated as a human being, and free. We see the possibility to be who we are and to take pride in that and have others not only accept but support, learn, grow, and value who we are and who we can be. We see the possibility to enjoy the efforts of those before us and to make things better for those who will follow.

We see the possibilities.

But we must work to make things happen. We must no longer apologize to others for who we are, but we must be able to help those who don't understand! If you're thinking that I'm saying we must be strong for straight people, you're right. It's a dirty job, but someone has to do it! We must be the enablers - those who enable straight and closeted lesbian and gay people to educate themselves and others about our affectional orientations.

We must work to help ourselves as well. We must set examples that all people would be proud to follow. To do this we must take pride in who we are as a group and individually.

There are any number of ways to do this. Whether it be working in one of this town's organizations, or financially supporting civil rights' causes, or perhaps most effectively, saying, "I'm gay and I'm glad it's a part of me," or "I'm a lesbian and I'm proud that's the way I was meant to be." Whether that be to someone you know or even yourself, when you say that, you're helping all of us.

Thanks to those brave people at Stonewall for this possibility. I hope your Pride Month is a good one. Hope to see you at Dignity soon!

In Dignity,

Keith

GLSO SUNDAY POTLUCKS CHANGE TIME

Razzmatazz, which hosts GLSO's monthly potlucks on the first Sunday of each month, will be open to the public for brunch from 10 am - 2 pm each Sunday, beginning the first Sunday of June. Consequently, the GLSO potlucks will start at 3 pm. These have always been a lot of fun each month, and are a great chance to have a really excellent, inexpensive meal without the hassle of having to cook everything yourself. The events are also a good opportunity to get out of the house and spend the afternoon with friends, as well as meet other "Members of the Clan", "Friends of Dorothy", and others "of the Proper Persuasion".

GAY AMERICA

ANNAPOLIS, MD

The United States Naval Academy recently forced a midshipman to resign after revealing to a fellow cadet that he is gay. The last time a student was subjected to such treatment because he was gay was in 1984.

LYNCHBURG, VA

Jerry Falwell's Moral Majority/Liberty Foundation has stepped up its crusade against homosexuality, and is continuing to preach Falwell's claim that AIDS is God's judgment against those who practice or accept homosexuality. Liberty Front, the fundamentally religious organization's newspaper, ran the first installment of an anti-gay "AIDS Cover-up," and a feature article condemning Planned Parenthood's progressive views on homosexuality. The paper also criticized condom advertising; and printed six gay/AIDS related news briefs, and an "Action Alert" urging readers to insist that their federal legislators support anti-gay, AIDS-related legislation.

They'll succeed in these bigoted attempt, too, unless everyone of us makes some effort to help the fight against them, whether it's by writing or calling legislators, volunteering time and work, or giving monetary donations - NOW!

DENVER, CO

The Colorado legislature passed a bill requiring doctors and laboratories to report names of all people who test HIV positive and granted sweeping powers to quarantine people with AIDS. The new law also directs officials to notify parents of any minor who tests positive; allows state health officials to access and inspect any relevant medical records while inspecting sources of HIV infection, without requiring subpoenas to obtain the records; and does not require individuals to be notified that their records are being examined.

"A lot of people here did not think that anything like this could happen," said Tom Witte, a gay activist in Colorado. "It could have been prevented if people had taken it as seriously as the bill's proponents took it. Like everywhere else, most of Colorado's gays and lesbians thought they'll be able to hide at home forever. But they - and the rest of us - will learn the hard way that's just self-deception at its worst. Ask six million dead Jews and 500,00 dead homosexuals if you don't believe me."

RAINBOW FADES FOR THIS SEASON

The Rainbow Bowling League wrapped up its season on May 5th, and celebrated with its annual awards banquet the following Tuesday at China Cafe. April and Dottie topped the awards list for women, with Steve and Chuck earning the top prizes for men. Spare Me won first place in the team competition with the Alley Cats hot on their tail.

Originally organized with the help of GLSO, Rainbow League is definitely a winner on the list of social activities sponsored by your organization. This past season the league was represented at gay tournaments in both Louisville and Columbus, with some of our bowlers bringing home prize money from the Louisville event. A Lexington team is spending Memorial Day weekend in New Orleans at the annual tournament of the International Gay Bowlers Organization. If that sounds like a big deal, it is! Can you imagine the fun at a three day party with thousands of gays from around the world?

The league will resume again in the fall, so do a little practicing this summer and come on out to see what (who) you've been missing. Skill or coordination are not required - we just have fun! Watch for details in upcoming issues of the Newsletter.

"I throw one of these every summer to bring gay men and lesbians back together again."
