

2. Prof. A. Frederick Collins, of Phila., the well known electrical scientist.

3. Mr. Henry Clay Fish, Treasurer of the Wireless Telephone Co., of America.

PHOTOGRAPHED DECORATION DAY, MAY 30, 1902,
AT FAIRMONT PARK, PHILADELPHIA.

4. Albert Crump, the General Manager of the Philadelphia Key Stone Telephone Co.

5. Reporter for the Philadelphia Inquirer receiving messages

6. The inventor, Nathan Stubblefield.

Demonstration of WIRELESS TELEPHONING one mile distant from installation in second story of the Belmont Mansion.
The wire shown in the front of the picture attached to the receiver held by the Reporter of the Philadelphia Inquirer, is the ground wire attached to the receiver.