

we have not had any real spring days yet. No other birds are yet really gone the Blue. after coming it all winter and they had here it, I am so sorry that I could go to them, but I am afraid, I telephone often to ask how they are. I do hope the Grandmother is better now and that the mother got the demon made in time. I know they were beautiful and my love to both of them, and see them I wish to mighty glad to hear from them I am sure to a party last night at Foy's and so he did not come home all night. I guess he is still there, some tray in the rear my home has a parrot and the old thing is now preaching it - home of. I wish I could bring it to neck and help to hear it. Much love for every body - see closing Aunt Rose and mine - I am lovingly I love - see

Dear Lucinda -

You never can know how glad I was to get your nice loving letter. I had wanted to hear from you so much. You don't know how homesome, and home-sick I do get for all my loved ones. sometimes I feel I just cannot stand it any longer, and then I get ashamed that I am so retelious at what I feel is God's will, but I know it will be all right some time, when we will all be reunited again. I am so glad to know that you are doing so well in school; but don't go too fast.
