

are not alone. but surrounded with long and friends. after all the best and about the only lasting thing that life has to offer.
And so. old friends and dear friends accept our deepest sympathy and our love. How I wish there was something I could do for you. as it is I am thinking of you grieving with you and praying the Heavenly Father to comfort you.
Sincerely and lovingly
Maude <sup>and</sup> N.C.H.

2/27/19

Dear, dear friends.

This morning I read a letter from Mary Ben in which she says "I'm it too bad about Daddy Noble" and the letter that I had written telling us of the dreadful news having been delayed I did not know what to think and set right down to write her for an explanation & while writing I read G's delayed letter. I don't know when we were so shocked and