

State of Minnesota,
County of Hennepin,
St. Paul, Minnesota,
Minneapolis, Minn. May 1st 1919

I Edward Louis Quest being in my right mind declare this to be my last will and testament.

I hereby give and bequeath to my daughter Lucinda Elizabeth Quest of Louisville Ky. one third of my interest in the firm of J. F. Quest & Bro. and to my Mother Mrs. Minnie E. Quest of Minneapolis Minn. the remaining two thirds of my interest in said firm of J. F. Quest & Bro. This interest is to be devided and settlement is to be made according to the written partnership agreement between my brother J. F. Quest and myself.

The disposition of my interest in the Crystal Specialty & Mfg. Co. I leave to the judgement of my brother J. F. Quest. My suggestion would be that he should take over this interest himself.

Regarding my personal property I desire the following disposition made.

My diamond ring I give to my sister Mrs. Elvira Wharton.

My watch and fob I give to my nephew Roy Wharton.

My stick pins are to be devided among my nephews Williams Jennings Quest, Theodore Quest Buerck, and Charles Frederick Quest.

The rest of my personal property I give to my Mother to be disposed of as she sees fit.

I hereby name my brother, J. F. Quest as sole executor without bond.

Witness my hand this First day of May in the year 1919.

Edward Louis Quest
