PEOPLE WATCHING

Cruising for nice bods? Hit the gym, go to class

JEFF PATTERSON | KERNEL STAFF

Lookin' cool

UK journalism junior Laura Bogenschutz, business management junior Troy Kenning and finance junior Brian Mauntel soak up the sun at the University Commons pool.

Some say that eye candy is a big part of what college is about. Here's where to go to eye some hot bods:

The wall outside the Classroom Building

The ultimate people-watching place. Chill out, read the Kernel or study for a test and check out the guys and girls waiting for class.

Swimming pools

Pools are the prime place for half-naked sun-soaked hotties.

Gyms

Whether it's at the Johnson Center on campus or YMCA on East High Street, working out is a great opportunity to spot nice bodies.

Greek houses

Rush for a fraternity or sorority and see if the people live up (or down) to the Animal House standards. Or, don't go Greek and watch the rush rituals from a distance. Either way, you're bound to find some beauty in the mobs of rushees.

Strip clubs

Yeah, it's an obvious one, but it's essential for a list like this.

GETAWAYS

Take a few days off, enjoy local nature spots

A horse, of course

The Lexington Horse Park offers horse-drawn tours, daily horse shows and two museums. Visitors can ride horses at the park. There is also a camping ground.

Sometimes a weekend away from Lexington is all you need.

Carter Caves

Carter Caves has more than 20 underground caves to explore. Guided tours are available. For above ground entertainment, there's golfing, boating, fishing and swimming. Carter Caves is located about 30 miles east of Ashland, Ky.

Mammoth Cave

Mammoth Cave has many caves to explore with either guided or individual tours. Campsites are also available. It's located in Hopkinsville, Ky.

Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill

Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill offers a glimpse into the simple life of the Shakers. The Shakers were known for their sturdy furniture and practical baskets, which can be purchased at the village. A restaurant offers traditional Shaker meals and overnight lodging is also available. It's located in Mercer County about 45 minutes from Lexington.

Red River Gorge

Red River Gorge, part of the Daniel Boone National Forest, offers rock climbing, hiking and scenic views — and it's free. Visitors can also canoe and whitewater raft on the Red River. It's in Wolfe County near another attraction, Natural Bridge State Park.

JUST TO GET BY

Duct tape and shower shoes: some necessities for dorm life

Clean and comfy
Sandals, a shower caddy and a fluffy bath robe are all must-haves for making a dorm more comfortable.

PHOTO FURNISHED

Ear plugs. While cinder block walls may stop light and smells, they don't stop the sound of a stereo blaring at 2 a.m. Be prepared.

Shower shoes. You're not sliding on the tile floor because the water is running on it. Yuk.

Duct tape and super glue. They can fix anything from curtains to computers.

Seat cushion. It pads your bum as you toil over homework into the wee hours of the morning.

Lap board. In case you forgo the seat cushion, at least you can indulge in your egg-crate covered bed by studying in it.

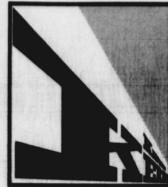

Egg crate mattress. Just because they call that thing that comes with the bed a mattress doesn't mean it's going to be soft.

Fan. You don't appreciate a breeze until you're living in the sweltering heat of an un-air-conditioned dorm.

Robe. Unless you like clothes that fell on the shower floor, this lets you get from bathroom to bedroom comfortably.

UK Information Technology brings you the top-tier technology you need to succeed in college and beyond.

Your Student Technology Updates

The IT Customer Service Center Is Your "Front Door" to Campus Technology Resources
For computing help, UK downloads such as McAfee Antivirus, and self-help documentation, contact the IT Customer Service Center, 111 McVey Hall (257-1300) Monday thru Friday, 7 a.m. - 6 p.m. Or visit the CSC website at www.uky.edu/IT/customer-service.

Drop In with Your Wireless Laptop and Work from One of our New Wireless Kiosk Sites As a part of IT's ongoing effort to expand wireless capabilities on campus, both the Business and Economics Student Computing Lab and the First Floor of Whitehall Classroom Building will have convenient wireless work stations for you to bring your own wireless laptop. You can check email, research a topic, or join an online class discussion without being directly tethered to a network port. We hope you visit one of the new locations soon. For more information and wireless updates, bookmark the UK Wireless website at www.uky.edu/wireless.

Email Addresses for All Students All UK students who did not have a UK email address have been given one. Please go to www.uky.edu/email/ucconnect/studentinfo.html to activate your UK email address. You can also forward your mail to another account from this page. Your U-connect account provides web-based access to e-mail with 50 MB of storage, 200 MB of file storage via the student e-lockers, and personalized calendars that provide the ability to automatically load class schedules and campus events. For questions, please contact the IT Customer Service Center at 257-1300 or visit their web site at www.uky.edu/IT/customer-service.

Student Computing Services Provides Campus-wide Computer Access to Students Need a computer? SCS operates 16 Student Computing Labs located throughout the campus. All SCS Labs have wireless capabilities to access the internet with your own laptop. Two of our labs have 24 hour access and are located in residence hall areas. Plus, we've made many updates to the labs over the summer by replacing about one-third of the pcs, installing the XP operating system and much more. Learn more at www.uky.edu/SCS.

Copyright Information provided by RIAA (Recording Industry Association of America). Copying and sharing CDs and electronic music files without permission from the copyright owner is a violation of federal copyright laws, and is illegal. While in the past copyright owners have merely complained about illegal sharing, they have recently begun taking more aggressive action to enforce their copyright interests. The RIAA has begun sending subpoenas to universities and suing students it has determined were engaged in electronic file sharing. The RIAA has sued a number of students with no prior notice, in many instances seeking $150,000 per infringement (i.e. per song).

MYTHS about music and the Internet:

- ⇒ If I upload music from a CD that I own, I'm not violating copyright law. FALSE. Just because you own the CD doesn't mean you "own the music." You can't put music on the Internet without permission of the copyright owners of the sound recording and the musical composition.
- ⇒ If I don't charge people for downloading music from my site, it's not a violation of the law. FALSE. If you don't hold the copyright, you can't authorize downloads of sound recordings even if you don't charge a fee.
- ⇒ If a Website doesn't display a copyright notice for the music, the music is not copyrighted. FALSE. In the U.S., almost every work created privately and originally after March 1, 1989, is copyrighted and protected whether or not it has a notice.
- ⇒ If I upload or download a sound recording and leave it on my drive for less than 24 hours, then I am not liable for copyright infringement. FALSE. Whether you upload or download a sound recording for 24 hours, 24 minutes or less, you are still likely to be violating copyright law.
- ⇒ An MP3 site is legal as long as you put a disclaimer on it. FALSE. It doesn't matter how many disclaimers you put on an MP3 site. If you operate an unlicensed MP3 site, you are violating copyright law.

TATTOO YOU

Make your skin a canvas for some permanent art

Getting inked

No one denies that tattoos are painful. The area of the body being tattooed and the size of the art can determine how much a tattoo will hurt. They are permanent, but some laser procedures can remove much of a tattoo.

Pick a design, go under the needle and make a permanent statement on your skin.

Getting high

Adventurous students can try to master The Stadium's 36-foot rock climbing wall. For those with a fear of heights, plenty of other diversions like arcade games and laser tag are also available.

It's never too late to act like a kid.

The Stadium
The facility holds a wide variety of activities including cosmic bowling, laser tag, billiards, arcade, rock climbing, batting cages and basketball. Students can present their UK IDs to get discounts for bowling, laser tag, rock climbing and billiards.

The Stadium's hours are Monday through Thursday from 10 a.m. to 1 a.m. and Sunday from 11 a.m. to 1 a.m. It is located at 412 Sporting Ct., behind the Meijer on Reynolds Road. Call 296-6549 for more information about special prices.

Gattitown
Hungry students can go through the all-you-can-eat pizza and pasta buffet lines before heading to the game room. The buffet runs at $6 a person. Gattitown is open Sunday through Thursday 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Friday and Saturday 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. Students can look in the Coupon Mint books for information about deals. It is located at 2524 Nicholasville Road. Call 277-2323 for more information.

Lexington Ice & Recreation Center
Show off at the ice rink or goof around on the miniature golf course, both at the Lexington Ice & Recreation Center. Rates for golf run from $5 to $6 and skating is about $7, but it depends on skate rentals. The center is located at 560 Eureka Springs Drive. Call 269-5681 for information about hours.
