"All we have of freedom—all we use or know—
This our fathers bought for us, long and long ago."
—Rudyard Kipling

This collage by New York artist Fred Otnes was especially commissioned by Brown & Williamson for its permanent collection of fine art works.

The freedom to choose our livelihood was provided to us long ago. And it was typified by the struggle of immigrants to America in the early 1800's. People like Adam Gimbel, a humble Jewish peddler from Germany, who later founded the country's first department store. And individuals who became industrial giants, like Andrew Carnegie from Scotland, who built one of the largest steel producing businesses in the United States. America had given both of them the freedom to choose.

A free individual does not live without choice. A free society does not prosper without it. Consider, if you will, the personal choices we make every day without intervention from others. Now consider how many we take for granted.

The right to choose is the basis of all freedom—political, social, artistic, economic, religious—for all people. But this right must be protected from those who would chip away at it...either deliberately for personal gain, or innocently for the "betterment" of humanity. It must be protected from those who would make their choice, your choice. These personal freedoms are our legacy as well as our responsibility...to protect and to pass on to those who follow.

Freedom. It's a matter of choice.

JERRY CLAIBORNE

Back at his Old Kentucky Home

When the head football coach's job became vacant for the first time in 10 years last December, a blue-ribbon committee was assembled to find a man who would bring a positive, new outlook to the University of Kentucky.

The group poured over resumes and interviewed a number of candidates in order to come up with the ideal man.

Their overwhelming choice: home-grown Jerry Claiborne.

Claiborne not only brought along a ledger gushing with wins and bowl invites, included in his baggage was a reputation cleaner than clean.

A devout churchman, the 54-year-old product of Hopkinsville impresses everyone as just what he is: solid as a rock.

It made the transition much easier that Claiborne was a son of the Commonwealth and a successful alumnus of the University.

Claiborne was a multi-sport standout at Hopkinsville and went on to UK to play for Paul "Bear" Bryant, playing end on offense and safety on defense. He set a school record with nine pass interceptions on the 1949 Orange Bowl team.

He served his coaching apprenticeship at Augusta Military Academy, UK, Texas A&M, Missouri and Alabama before landing his first head coaching job in 1961 at Virginia Tech.

All he did at VPI in 10 seasons was compile a won-lost record of 61-39-2 and give the Gobblers their first Southern Conference championship in the history of the school.

He spent one year as an assistant at Colorado before tackling another delicate operation at Maryland, victim of seven straight losing campaigns when Claiborne arrived in 1972.

His first Terrapin squad finished square (5-5-1) and then the fun began. At the end of the Claiborne decade at College Park, the tally read 77-37-3 and three Atlantic Coast Conference trophies had been added to the shelf.

Three times Claiborne was named ACC Coach of the Year at Maryland and in 1974, the Sporting News honored him as National Coach of the Year.

He had 38 players named all-conference in his 10 seasons and developed All-America selections Paul Vellano, Randy White, Joe Campbell, Steve Mike-Mayer and Dale Castro.

CLAIBORNE . . .

In addition to serving as president of the Football Coaches Association (1980), Claiborne found time to participate in coaching activities from Ramstein, Germany to Tokyo, Japan, conducting various clinics and coaching in all-star games.

He has contributed his support to many charity drives, serving in Maryland as Chairman of the Prince George's County Cancer Crusade and while at VPI he was state chairman of the Virginia Cancer Crusade. He is an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and has served as a deacon in the Baptist Church.

Mrs. Claiborne, the former Faye Hooks of Hopkinsville, is also a UK grad. The Claibornes have two sons, David and Jonathan, and two daughters, Katie and Eileen. Claiborne was born August 26, 1928.

UK LEADERS

OTIS SINGLETARY
University President

CLIFF HAGAN
Athletics Director

The University of Kentucky has made great strides toward academic excellence since Dr. Otis A. Singletary assumed the office of president in August, 1969.

Two professional schools—dentistry and pharmacy—have been ranked among the best in the nation. Departments such as political science, history and mathematics have gained national attention. The UK library now ranks among the best in the Southeast and a large portion of the worldwide research related to tobacco and health is now done at UK.

Dr. Singletary had previously served as chancellor at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, executive vice chancellor for academic affairs in the University of Texas system and director for the Job Corps for the Office of Economic Opportunity. He holds degrees from Millsaps College and Louisiana State University.

As president of the principal institution of higher learning in the Commonwealth, Dr. Singletary is greatly concerned with the University's role as a land-grant institution, a "people's university" accessible to all who can profit from education.

In the 12 years he has been president, the University has grown to more than 23,400 students on the Lexington campus and about 21,000 students in UK's 13 community colleges, and the University has become one of the major research institutions in the country.

A native of Gulfport, Miss., Dr. Singletary is the author of two books and several monographs. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa Senate.

He and Mrs. Singletary, the former Gloria Walton, have three children: Bonnie, Scot and Kendall.

The hiring of new football coach Jerry Claiborne and presentation

He also enjoyed a fine pro basketball career, playing with the St. Louis Hawks for 10 years and then the Dallas Chapparals.

He is married to the former Martha Milton. They have four children: Mrs. Barry "Lisa" Thaxton of Lexington, Mrs. Jim "Laurie" Hill of West Liberty, and Amy and Kip, both of Lexington. Hagan and his wife are natives of Owensboro.

of a record budget of $6,397,685 to the UK Athletics Association Board of Directors are two of the most recent developments in the career of Cliff Hagan, now in his eighth year as Wildcat athletics director.

Continued growth in practically all phases of UK athletics has been a hallmark of Hagan's seven-year reign as UK's athletics director, with outstanding attendance at football and basketball games, increased attendance at Lady Kat basketball and men's baseball, and a steady upgrading of facilities.

Hagan, one of the great basketball players in UK history, joined the athletics staff in 1972 as an assistant to Harry C. Lancaster and became heavily involved in raising funds for Commonwealth Stadium and later for Rupp Arena. Hagan replaced Lancaster in July, 1975 as athletics director.

WE HAVE A GAME PLAN!

At Ashland and Valvoline, we recognize the need to develop a game plan to get the jump on competition and stay ahead.

In our business as in sports, we look to competitive spirit and teamwork as vital links in the drive to success and future growth.

Each day we begin a renewed dedication to practice the main fundamentals in the game of business... to provide our customers with the best possible products in the most cost-effective manner. Our customers are the bricks of the foundation upon which our exceptional growth has been built.

Like the Kentucky Wildcats, Ashland and Valvoline have developed a winning tradition over the years. And as we approach each new "season", we realize that the battle to win will be tough. But we are ready for the challenge.

UK CHANCELLORS

WETHINGTON

The University of Kentucky now has three chancellors—the result of a major reorganization of the University.

They are:

—Art Gallaher, former UK vice president for academic affairs, is the new chancellor for the Lexington campus;

—Peter Bosomworth, former vice president for the Albert B. Chandler Medical Center, is the new chancellor of the Medical Center; and —Charles Wethington, former vice president of the UK Community College System, is the new chancellor of the system.

The three chancellors report to UK President Otis Singletary.

“Our basic objective in this reorganization is to focus more clearly the responsibility and authority for the day-to-day administration of the three academic sectors on the chancellors,” said Singletary.

The UK chancellors’ responsibilities in their areas will include academic program planning, budgeting, student policies, business services and personnel program administration.

After holding tenured teaching posts at the universities of Houston and Nebraska, Gallaher came to UK in 1963. He has been chairman of the UK anthropology department and acting director and deputy director of the UK Center for Developmental Change.

In 1972, Dr. Gallaher was named dean of the UK College of Arts and Sciences, a post he held until 1980 when he was appointed UK vice president for academic affairs.

Dr. Bosomworth came to UK in 1962 as professor and chairman of the new department of anesthesiology in the UK College of Medicine. He has served on numerous medical boards and councils throughout Kentucky and the U. S. He was named vice president of the UK Medical Center in 1970.

Dr. Wethington began his career at UK in 1964 as an instructor of educational psychology. He was acting director of UK’s Lexington Technical Institute in 1966-67 and was named the first director of the Maysville Community College in 1967.

In 1971, Dr. Wethington began a nine-year term as assistant vice president for the UK Community College System and was promoted to vice president in 1980.

Home games in caps

Win-hungry Kentucky plays its third Big Eight conference opponent in as many weeks this afternoon and Wildcat fans are hopeful the offense gets points on the board earlier than in losses to Kansas State and Oklahoma.

The 'Cats have scored all of their 17 points in the fourth quarter and have been outscored 35-0 in the first three stanzas.

Tailback George Adams came off the bench to run for 87 yards last week against Oklahoma, including a 55-yard run that led to Kentucky's only TD. Adams and John Gay will carry the load at tailback now that Pete Venable has been suspended for the season.

Wildcat QB Randy Jenkins has completed 67% of his passes for 381 yards in two games, but has thrown four interceptions and only one touchdown. Jenkins had a tough day against an aggressive Oklahoma secondary a week

Kentucky's defense will face a more balanced attack in Kansas. The Jayhawks have rushed for 331 yards and passed for 335 in two games. Kansas was upset in its opener with Wichita State, 13-10, but bounced back to defeat Texas Christian last week, 30-19.

Jayhawk coach Don Fambrough discounts the fact UK has already lost to two Big Eight schools.

"Whenever you have a coaching change, it takes time to make adjustments," Fambrough said this week. "Kentucky is the type of team that will improve with each game.

"I'm very impressed with their quarterback, Randy Jenkins. He is a fine leader. This is basically the same team that gave us all we wanted at our place last year," Fambrough added.

"They went to a bowl last year and most of their people are back," surmises UK head coach

Jerry Claiborne. "They have one of the best kicking games in the country."

Quarterback Frank Seurer will direct the KU offense. He has completed 56% of his passes for 335 yards. Tailback Dino Bell leads Kansas with 117 yards in two games, a 3.8 average per carry.

Kentucky's main task is to keep a mental sharpness despite two disappointing losses.

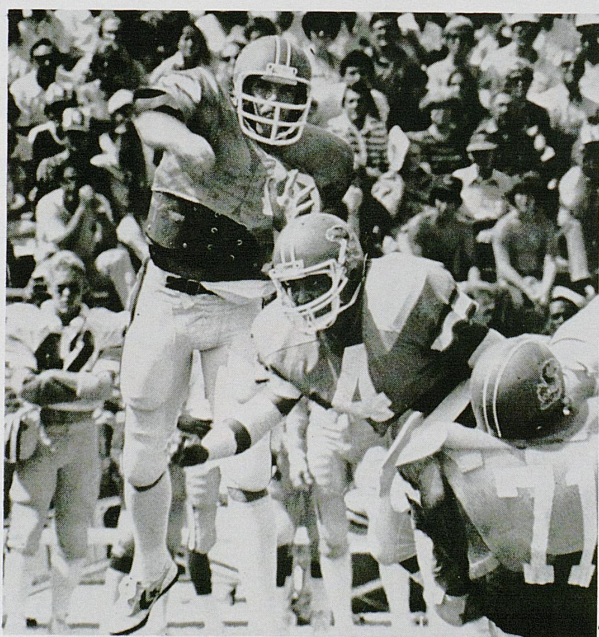

"You can get used to losing and you can get used to winning," says Claiborne. "We've got to get in that winning track. Our players cannot get their heads down.

"We've just got to work hard and eliminate our mistakes. Our fans deserve a winner and I hope we can give them a win against Kansas."

The Wildcats lost defensive guard Dave Thompson for the season last week via a knee injury. Don Roe suffered a hyperextended elbow against OU but might return today at defensive end. Defensive tackle Jeff Smith and tailback Lawrence "Choo Choo" Lee have yet to see action this season.

Sophomore tailback George Adams provided some zip for the Kentucky offense in the second half against Oklahoma.

Kansas junior quarterback Frank Seurer shows the passing form he used to win All-Big Eight conference honors a year ago.

SERIES HISTORY: Kansas has won all three meetings with Kentucky, 14-10 in 1975, 37-6 in 1976 and 21-16 last year. Quarterback Nolan Cromwell and running back Laverne Smith starred as the Jayhawks won the first meeting in 1975 at Lexington, 14-10.

LAST MEETING: Sept. 26, 1981 at Lawrence, Kan.—Kansas won 21-16 on a furious fourth-quarter comeback but lost running back Kerwin Bell in the second quarter with a season-ending knee injury.

Trailing 16-8, the Jayhawks recovered a Wildcat fumble on the KU 31 and seven plays later, Garfield Taylor scored a three-yard TD run. The Jayhawks drove 65 yards for the winning score with Walter Mack diving in from two yards out. Kentucky got field goals from Tom Griggs and Rick Strein and Randy Jenkins threw an 18-yard scoring pass to Jim Campbell in the second quarter.

Radisson Plaza Lexington

A sparkling holiday-time addition to the Radisson Collection.

Rising magnificently out of the heart of Bluegrass Country, the Radisson Plaza Lexington is already "the talk of the town," and our opening isn't even scheduled until early in November!

A 22 story center-city facility within the new Vine Center development, the Radisson Plaza Lexington will provide an abundance of southern hospitality along with that uniquely Radisson "extra": genuine value.

370 inviting guest rooms, exceptional restaurants and lounges, more than 18,000 square feet of meeting/exhibit space—all just a skywalk's stroll from Lexington's thriving Civic Center/Rupp Arena complex.

Of course, Radisson's 73-year tradition of excellence will be evident everywhere. Whether you're planning an executive visit or a major convention, make certain your first—and only—call is to us.

THE PRIDE OF STICKLEYVILLE, VA.

By MARK DYER

Let's be polite about this because Randy Jenkins is such a nice guy, but Randy DOES come from a small town.

How small is it?, you ask.

The UK media guide lists Jenkins' hometown as Stickleyville, Va. If there is a Stickleyville, nobody has bothered to tell Rand-McNally. You just plain can't find it in the atlas.

"There's nothing there but a grade school and two stores," says Jenkins, cracking a smile.

We'll take Jenkins' word that Stickleyville is in the southwest corner of Virginia, just a fly pattern away from the Kentucky and Tennessee state boundaries.

The college recruiters didn't exactly trip over themselves to watch the standout quarterback for tiny Pennington Gap High. Randy remembers about 600 kids went to school there. He was class president and everything.

This is not to suggest Jenkins was ignored. It's just that single-A football in Virginia is not the highest-regarded level of play in the nation.

A college coach holds his breath when he signs a prospect from an obscure high school playing against poor competition. Of course, we also need to remind ourselves Herschel Walker came from a Class A high school in Wrightsville, Ga.

A number of second tier schools were very interested in Jenkins and Kentucky had shown more than a "passing" interest all along. Tennessee got involved during his senior season and even North Carolina got around to talking to him after it was too late.

"Kentucky was the first to contact me during my junior year and Tennessee and North Carolina talked to me when I was a senior," Jenkins remembers.

In fact, UK almost lost out to the arch-rival Vols on the multi-sport prep star.

"I almost went to Tennessee," Jenkins admits. "It's about an hour closer to Knoxville from Stickleyville."

Credit Cawood Ledford with an assist at this point. Jenkins explains:

"I had always been a Kentucky fan as long as I could remember. There was always Kentucky Basketball on the radio and that swayed me. I came up for a couple of football games when I was younger and I came here a couple of times my senior year.

"I like the people, the community and the program."

It's been a long road to where Randy Jenkins is now—UK's starting quarterback, period.

A broken ankle against Maryland ended his first freshman season in 1979 after only three games. He was granted hardship status and got to be a freshman all over again in 1980, splitting playing time with QBs Larry McCrimmon and Terry Henry.

Last year, Jenkins shared the job with Henry and threw for 1,079 yards, even though opposing defenses had a pretty good idea he was putting it up.

"It was tough with that system," Jenkins recalls. "Terry was the runner and I was the passer. Teams would bring in an extra defensive back when I came in because they knew I was throwing."

Jenkins has seen good times and bad times in his career.

"Beating Tennessee last year was my biggest thrill. There's a lot of Tennessee fans in my hometown. I'd probably say losing to Alabama last year was the lowest moment. We were ahead of them and we played so well, especially in the second half. They scored, we lost that kickoff, and it was gone."

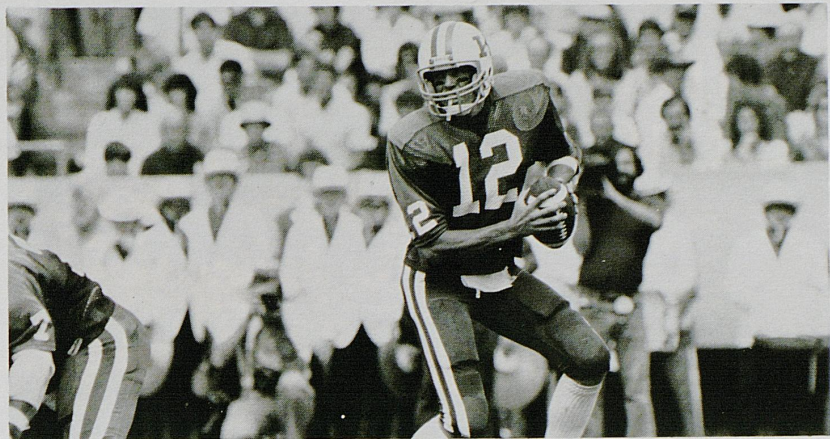

Jenkins says even though the Wildcats have had a rough start, the attitude is definitely upbeat.

"We know we've got talent," says Jenkins. "It's just a matter of eliminating mistakes. Our offense is better."

At 6-1, 195 pounds, Jenkins has enough height to pass from the pocket and is strong enough to play when the action gets a little close. His speed is a little better than average, probably a consistent 4.65 or 4.7 in the 40-yard dash.

He has started about a dozen games for UK and he's only a junior. Although Babe Parilli's career record of 4,669 yards passing looks safe, Jenkins will stack up some impressive stats before his career is finished. The record he would like most to achieve is a winning record.

Don't count the Stickleyville Slingshot out yet.

If you're a frequent visitor to Lexington, for either business, pleasure, or both, consider the advantages of owning an Opera House Square Townhome.

Opera House Square is located within easy walking distance of downtown Lexington. It is within one block of Lexington Center, with its many exclusive Mall shops and Rupp Arena, the 23,000 seat home of basketball's powerhouse Kentucky Wildcats. Commonwealth Stadium, home of Kentucky's football Wildcats, is conveniently reached either by shuttle buses, or your private car.

Many of Lexington's professional offices are easily accessible, as is the Court House and other government facilities, in addition to the proposed World Coal Center.

Picture your lifestyle as a resident of Opera House Square. You are part of a community located within Lexington's Historic Western Suburb. Each townhome opens onto a brick sidewalk and overlooks a commons with trees and a fountain. Your private patio, just off your living room, brings sunlight and soft breezes gently throughout your home.

So whatever your reason for being in Lexington, consider the benefits of owning a townhome at Opera House Square . . . your home away from home.

Players of the Week

BEST OFFENSIVE PLAYER

George Adams
Tailback

George had an excellent second half against Oklahoma last week, rushing for a game-high 87 yards. The 6-1, 208-pounder from Lexington's Lafayette High broke free for a 55-yard run to spark UK's only touchdown drive of the game and he scored on a sweep around left end from five yards out. Adams also caught a pass from Randy Jenkins for a two-point conversion. He is a sophomore.

BEST DEFENSIVE PLAYER

Kevin McClelland
Linebacker

Kevin had an outstanding game against the rugged Oklahoma wishbone attack, making 10 primary tackles and four assists. A 6-2, 222-pound junior from Massillon, Ohio, Kevin was the second leading tackler on the Wildcat squad behind running mate John Grimsley last season. He was an all-state linebacker at Massillon High, a school traditionally with one of the best football programs in the country.

Even the sound of the door closing is by design.

Our doors speak well of the rest of our car. But their tight, solid sound is no accident.

Before we begin building the car, we engineer the best way to assemble it. Piece by piece.

Doors, trunk and hood fit the body with close tolerances all around. We align hinges and latches to work freely.

Window glass is held snug. And runs in the window channels smoothly. Triple rubber door seals help reduce outside sounds and wind noise. We've improved the insulation throughout the car.

The Honda Accord 4-Door Sedan is not only quieter, it's also roomier and more comfortable. You'll find it rides and handles better.

And while its many luxurious features are impressive, they are standard equipment. Like cruise control and variable-assist power steering, to name but two.

Honda's simple philosophy of building cars that work the way they were designed to work has made Honda number one in owner loyalty among all leading import cars*.

It has helped Honda cars retain a high resale value, among the best in the automotive industry.

You can fully appreciate how a Honda is made the next time you're in a Honda showroom.

After you kick the tires, listen to the doors.

HONDA

We make it simple.

CIMARRON '83

A NEW KIND OF CADILLAC

Bold new performance.

In '83 Cimarron sports a snappy new 2.0 liter electronically fuel-injected engine with a smooth-shifting five-speed manual transmission. (Three-speed automatic also available.) Cimarron '83 also has an exclusively tuned Touring Suspension, front-wheel drive, power-assisted rack and pinion steering and MacPherson strut front suspension... all standard. Some Cadillacs are equipped with engines produced by other GM divisions, subsidiaries, or affiliated companies worldwide. See your dealer for details.

Bold new look.

Cimarron shines with a distinctive new grille treatment, tungsten halogen fog lamps and a hood medallion. Plus crisp new aluminum alloy wheels for a clean, contemporary look in '83.

Limited edition poster offer.

For your limited edition Cimarron '83 poster on a reflective foil background, send $10 to:

KANSAS UNIVERSITY

Few campuses have enjoyed the support, both public and private that Kansas University has received in the last decade. An unprecedented building program has created physical facilities at KU that are among the finest at any public university.

KU students come from every county in Kansas, every state in the Union, and from more than 100 foreign countries. Fall enrollment in 1981 was 26,367. There were 22,105 students enrolled on the Lawrence campus, 1,885 enrolled off campus and 2,377 enrolled at the College of Health Sciences in Kansas City and Wichita.

During his first year as chancellor of the University of Kansas, Gene A. Budig has been very involved in the athletics department. He has personally visited with football players, selected a new athletics director, and thrown out the first pitch to open the KU baseball season.

But the chancellor's real love is teaching. Voted the most outstanding teacher at West Virginia University in the spring of 1981, he has taught every semester for the past 16 years. A professor of higher education and journalism, he has authored more than 50 articles for scholarly publications. The 42-year-old Nebraska native will begin his second year of teaching a graduate seminar at Budig has impressive credentials as an administrator, once heading Illinois State University and later West Virginia University. Each of these major universities has enrollments of more than 21,000 students. During the past 10 years, Dr. Budig has been responsible for the administration of about $1.3 billion of public funds.

Jim Lessig, the tenth athletics director in the history of the University, arrived at Kansas with a unique variety of experience.

His successes range from alumni activities and fund raising to coaching to radio and television announcing.

DON FAMBROUGH

Head Coach

There can be no reservations concerning the success the University of Kansas experienced in 1981. Nor can there be any qualms that Don Fambrough was the inspiration and driving force behind the Jayhawks' prosperous season.

An 8-4 regular season mark—best in 13 years—a 4-3 Big Eight record—tops since 1973 and a Hall of Fame Bowl appearance highlighted the Fambrough-led Jayhawks in '81.

Both wire services selected Fambrough Big Eight Coach of the Year. Fambrough never received the award in either his first or second tenure as KU's head coach.

Fambrough, who is in his 31st year on the Kansas staff, was first appointed head man in 1971 succeeding Pepper Rodgers. Before that he served 19 years as an assistant at KU. Fambrough's first tenure lasted four seasons and included a 1973 Liberty Bowl appearance and 7-4-1 record. Fambrough stepped down after the 1974 season but returned to the head coaching job in 1979.

Fambrough grew up in Longview, Texas and played football at the University of Texas before World War II and transferred to Kansas in 1946 to finish his career.

The 59-year-old Fambrough began his eighth season with an overall record of 34-42-3. His

Last year's 8-3 worksheet and bowl berth was the best season on record at the University of Kansas since Pepper Rodgers' Jayhawks of 1968 went 9-1 and lost to Penn State in the Orange Bowl.

Still, this is a new season and KU's opponents are more aware of the Jayhawks' ability this time around.

It doesn't help head coach Don Fambrough to have tailback Kerwin Bell on the sideline today because of an NCAA eligibility ruling that forced KU to hold Bell out of the first three games of the '82 season.

Bell, who gained 1,114 yards in a superlative freshman season in 1980, suffered a knee injury against Kentucky last season and missed the remaining nine games of the '81 campaign.

His replacement, Garfield Taylor, netted 728 yards to lead his team and place sixth in the Big Eight last season. Taylor has been slowed by injuries this season, making way for Kerwin's brother, Dino Bell.

At fullback is E. J. Jones, a 6-0, 210-pound junior who is a former linebacker.

The showpiece of the Jayhawk offense is quarterback Frank Seurer (SIGH-er), one of seven KU players from Huntington Beach, Calif.

Seurer passed for 1,199 yards and four TDs last season.

The Jayhawks have a typically huge Big Eight offensive line, led by 6-6, 260-pound guard K. C. Brown, only a junior.

Junior placekicker Bruce Kallmeyer set a league record by hitting 12 of 14 field goal attempts last season, including five against Nebraska.

The Jayhawk defense was tough enough to give KU a third place finish in the Big Eight last year (4-3 record), and the KU secondary ranked second in the league in pass defense.

Kansas lost both its linebackers and cornerbacks from last year's team but juniors Mike Arbanas and Eddie Simmons have assumed starting roles at linebacker.

Kansas has an experienced defensive front with size. Tackles Broderick Thompson (6-6, 275) and Mark Wilbers (6-4, 255) will be tough to move.

CAMPUS NEWS

University of Kentucky Student Government Association leaders Jim Dinkle of Lexington and David Bradford of Bardstown are campus-oriented.

When they decided to seek election as president and vice president of the student body, Dinkle and Bradford pledged to voice student needs.

To determine student feelings, they asked the students in a survey to name major issues and concerns.

"We found students wanted their government to be more accessible, more aware of immediate concerns," said Dinkle, who is student government president.

Concerns they found included the need for a speakers bureau, more pep rallies, parking and less restrictions on residence halls. And then there are student concerns of an international nature.

"The growing number of UK students concerned with placing a freeze on the nuclear arms race makes this movement the fastest growing one on campus," Dinkle said.

David Bradford, the vice president, is very much involved in a campaign to change visiting hours in the UK residence halls. And while Bradford has been meeting with UK students and administrators on that issue, Dinkle has been meeting with Lexington Mayor Scotty Baesler on the removal of parking meters around the campus to provide additional free parking.

In addition, Dinkle recently returned from a week in Washington, D. C., where he met with Kentucky congressmen and U. S. Department of Education officials concerning student financial aid.

The ever-increasing costs of higher education, coupled with the shortage of federal funding has led the UK Student Government Association to concern itself more and more with providing new job opportunities for students (such as the newly-formed UK Student Agencies Association) and to work with the UK Office of Continuing Education for Women to provide day-care facilities for non-traditional students.

"We also have been meeting with Dr. Peter Bosomworth, chancellor for the Medical Center, and Jean Cox of the Student Health Service, to consider a proposal that a mandatory fee be charged to each student for health service." Participation in the service is voluntary now.

"We will not as a governing body make the decision," Dinkle said. "Because it concerns each student, we will take it to the stu-

A GREAT AND GROWING UNIVERSITY

Truly one of the leading land grant institutions in the nation, the University of Kentucky has a national and international reputation in such diverse fields as medicine, business, engineering, law and agriculture.

Situated in the heart of the beautiful Bluegrass region of Kentucky, the main campus at Lexington has more than 23,000 students enrolled.

Another 20,000 students are enrolled in the 13 community colleges operated by UK across the state.

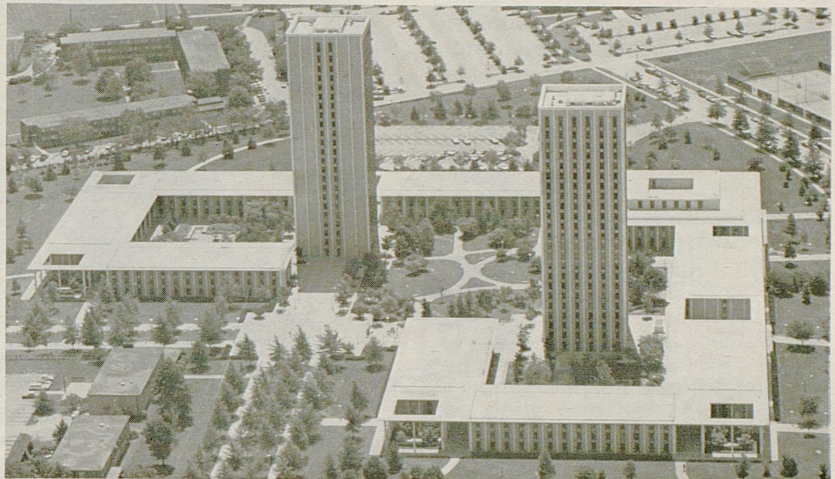

The main campus, near downtown Lexington, comprises about 625 acres of land on which there are more than 200 buildings and other structures, walks, malls, gardens, playing fields, recreation space and parking.

UK has a graduate school and 17 academic colleges . . . Arts and Sciences, Agriculture, Engineering, Business and Economics, Education, Home Economics, Library Science, Social Work, Architecture, Communications, Fine Arts, Law, Medicine, Nursing, Dentistry, Allied Health Professions and Pharmacy.

UK is noted for its research efforts, especially in the fields of energy, tobacco and cancer.

UK's Institute for Mining and Minerals Research is a national leader in energy-related research.

The UK College of Agriculture has been responsible over the years for the development of 80 percent of the burley tobacco varieties grown anywhere in the world, and its research on tobacco diseases has saved farmers millions of dollars.

Kentucky also is a world leader in the thoroughbred horse industry. In fact, vaccines developed at UK for horses are being used all over the world.

UK has an outstanding faculty with some of the top teachers and researchers in the nation.

In the arts, close to 100,000 people attend the many art, music and theater productions at UK. UK's new Center for the Arts contains a 400-seat recital hall, a 1,500-seat concert hall and the 20,000 square-foot UK Art Museum.

UK's Albert B. Chandler Medical Center has a wide range of programs in education and research. The five colleges of the Medical Center—Medicine, Nursing, Dentistry, Pharmacy and Allied Health—have more than 2,000 students pursuing bachelor, masters and doctoral degrees in health-related fields.

TAILGATING

With MARK DYER

The weather was touch-and-go for a while, but the rain finally stopped and the tailgate parties went off as planned last Saturday as the University of Kentucky home football season started at Commonwealth Stadium.

One of the larger gatherings was put on by Lexington businessmen Bruce Burnett, Charlie Peden and Jim Rocco.

They invited anywhere from 200 to 300 guests and had 800 pieces of chicken ready to barbecue, in addition to a lot of cole slaw and beer. They used two motor homes to keep a steady stream of supplies going to the mammoth affair and the cooks seemed to have as good a time as the guests.

A couple of rows over, Bourbon County was well-represented as Jim Prater had about 45 guests on hand for a lively gathering.

Prater, an attorney from Paris, presided over a lunch consisting of hot dogs boiled on an outdoor stove, potato chips, baked beans, dressed eggs, pimento cheese sandwiches, sloppy joes, brownies and a special creation by Agnes Clayton of Paris, onion sandwiches.

JIM PRATER

Probably the most elaborate party of the Oklahoma game was thrown by Ashland Oil, which had a tent set up in the north parking lot and featured a wide assortment of food catered by Lundy's.

Kentucky Kickoff will feature more tailgate parties in upcoming game programs. In the LSU game program, you'll be introduced to the UK Monkey Club, a group that inhabits an area in the east parking lot.

Don't miss it.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Onion Sandwiches

- 2 slices of bread
- Hellman's mayonnaise
- finely chopped onions

Agnes Clayton was the talk of the party with her onion sandwiches. Agnes, who hails from Paris, says she just chops the onions up thoroughly, spreads them over mayo on bread, "then they disappear." Agnes must be right because there weren't any left to sample by the time I arrived at their party site.

Bruce Burnett, left, tends to part of the 800 pieces of chicken he and partners Charlie Peden and Jim Rocco cooked.

FOOTBALL STAFF

The torrent of calls have to be answered. The flood of correspondence with recruits and well-wishers has to be typed. Someone has to track the head coach's whirlwind schedule.

There are a lot of details involved in running a football program the size of Kentucky's. Someone has to cross the "T's" and dot the "I's."

Three very capable ladies fill the bill at UK's football offices located in Commonwealth Stadium.

Janetta Owens, Barbara "Deanie" Hensley and Janis Aubrey are the persons behind the scenes that keep things moving smoothly.

Janetta is administrative assistant to Coach Claiborne and serves as office manager. Her many tasks include monitoring Coach Claiborne's busy agenda and negotiating her way through the ton of correspondence required of the head coach.

Janis is in her third season as recruiting secretary. She assists administrative assistant Dick Redding with the formidable task of organizing Kentucky's nationwide football recruiting effort.

The UK staff collects data on hundreds of high school football prospects each year and the work is steady year-round.

"Deanie" started work in June and is looking forward to her first football season. She serves as receptionist and works with the assistant coaches on correspondence.

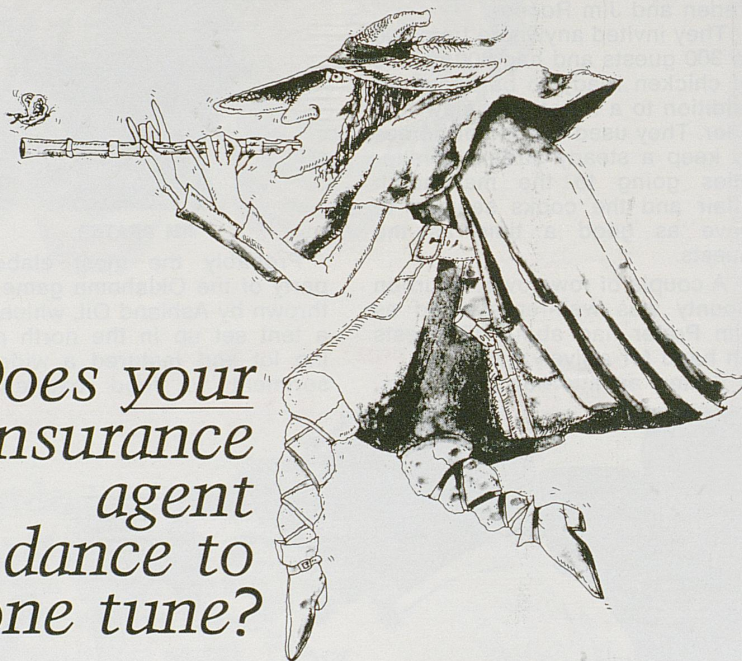

Janetta says she gets excited about the games just as much as the rest of the football staff.

"I can't eat or sleep the night before the game," she admits. "Even though we sit in the stands, our hearts are with the players and coaches down on the field."

"I watch both the action on the field and the reaction of the coaches to what happens. It's like having your family out there playing and coaching."

The insurance agent locked in with just one company must sell you the coverages that one company has to offer.

Grange Mutual Companies, however, believe that insurance agents should keep their ears (and minds) open to the companies and coverages that best meet the needs of their clients. That's why Grange supports the independent insurance agents—the only people authorized to sell Grange policies.

When there's no one piper to call the tune, the music is usually sweeter. Grange Mutual is proud of the independent agent whose open-ear policy is always best for their customers.

After combing the marketplace, Grange independent agents are recommending our Gold Star Automobile Plan, our Homeowner-3 coverages and our Businessowners Insurance, among others. # SEC ROUNDUP

The first real showdown of the young Southeastern Conference football season happens this afternoon at Florida Field in Gainesville as unbeaten Florida and Mississippi State tangle in league debuts for both squads.

The Bulldogs of Coach Emory Bellard have tuned up by disposing of Arkansas State, Tulane and Memphis State while the Gators have had a tougher slate in the early going with wins against Miami (Fla.) and Southern Cal.

TODAY'S GAMES: Kansas at Kentucky, 1:30 p.m. EDT; Miss. State at Florida, 1:30 EDT; Tennessee at Auburn, 2:30 EDT; Vandy at Alabama, 2:30 EDT; Georgia at South Carolina, 7:00 EDT; Ole Miss vs. Arkansas at Little Rock, 8:00 EDT; Rice at LSU, 8:30 EDT.

The Auburn Tigers, sporting freshman halfback Bo Jackson, host 1-1 Tennessee this afternoon in another key SEC matchup. Auburn, which has defeated Wake Forest and Southern Mississippi, will send Jackson and its other fine wishbone running backs against a Volunteer defense that ranks dead last in the league.

Alabama entertains Vanderbilt at Tuscaloosa after blowing out Ole Miss in Jackson last Saturday, 42-14. Quarterback Walter Lewis has the Crimson Tide offense rolling along.

Georgia returns to action at South Carolina under the lights tonight after enjoying a much-needed week off. The Bulldogs own hard-earned victories over Clemson and Brigham Young and should have a healthy Herschel Walker against the Gamecocks in Columbia.

Ole Miss will have to rebound quickly from last week's loss to Alabama as it travels to Little Rock to play the Arkansas Razorbacks, who are undefeated in two games.

LSU also plays tonight, hosting the Rice Owls at Tiger Stadium in Baton Rouge. The Tigers, 3-7-1 a year ago, opened last Saturday with a 45-7 whipping of Oregon State, but have a trip to Gainesville coming up next week.

They saw themselves as knights and ladies in quest of the Grail on a four year search for knowledge and truth. "Thus does the class of '32," they declared in the school yearbook, "ride out, our quest complet'd, vows fulfill'd armour on, casques pull'd down, lances couch'd, from spurs to plumes, wheresoe'er we ride, whatsoe'er may come, we're ready."

Leading the class of '32 in the final year of their adventure were Edwin Humphreys, president; Virginia Young Stone, vice president; Jane Bland, secretary, and William E. Florence, treasurer. Preparing the eternal record fell to Kentuckian editor Frank Stone, while recording of the immediate record took place under Kernel editor Lawrence Herron.

Athletics in the year of 1932 show Harry Gammage at the helm of a football team that compiled a 6-2-2 record. Co-captains were Ralph White and John S. Kelly; senior squad members, Kenneth Andrews, Richard Richards, Jack Phipps, Bud Cavana, Robert Kipping and Newell Wilder. Adolph Rupp, UK's Baron of basketball, had already established his reputation. The Wildcats posted a 15-2 season. Both losses, by one point each, occurred in the last 30 seconds of each game.

Classmates who planned for this weekend's reunion activities were Dr. Matthew C. Darnell, Jr., chairman, Rosalind Angelucci Austin, Cecil D. Bell, Russell S. Davis, Daniel E. Fowler, Juliet L. Galloway, Anne Shropshire Herron, William D. Kleiser, Rufus Lisle, Elizabeth Goode McVay and Virginia Nevins Reece.

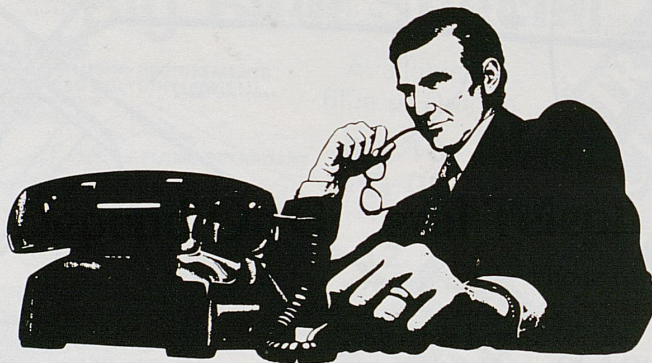

Other classes celebrating graduation memories this weekend are the classes of 1937, '42, '47, '52, '57 and '62. Each class gathered at the Hyatt Regency Hotel last night for a banquet. Humorist Grady Nutt, an early regular on the Hee Haw television show, entertained the crowd with his homespun yarns on human nature. This morning classmates of 1932 joined together in a brunch at the King Alumni House where alumni director Jay Brumfield and National Alumni president Morris classes of 1937 and 1952 will meet for dinner at Spindletop Hall. Classmates of 1957 and 1962 will renew acquaintances at a reception at the Campbell House.

Other activities on the agenda have included a tour of campus on the doubledeck bus, Old Blue, and the UK Art Museum.

Tidbits from UK's history associated with the reunion classes show that the class of 1937 had two student governments—one for the women under the leadership of Virginia Robinson, president, and Theodora Nadelstein, vice president, and one for the men led by Laban Jackson, president, and John McKenney, vice president.

The class of 1942 was on campus to celebrate the University's diamond jubilee and noted that while UK had grown considerably in 75 years that things really hadn't changed so much: "Some impart while others seek, Some must lead and many toil, There is beauty and lots of fun."

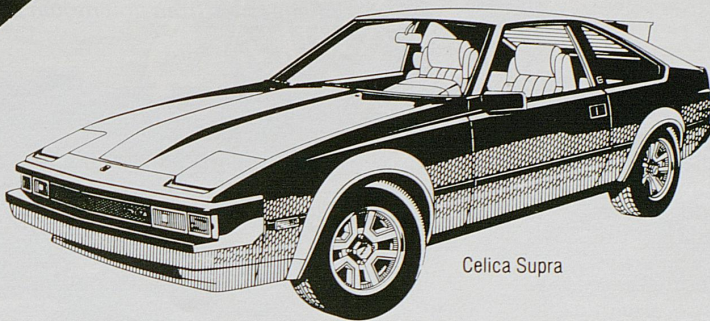

For the class of 1947, caricature art was the yearbook vogue. Howard Stephenson was president of the Student Government, and the Veterans Club, in its second year as a recognized student activity, listed over 2,500 in its membership.

The year for sports marked the senior year for the class of 1952. The football team came home as Cotton Bowl champions and Vito "Babe" Parilli and Doug Moseley were named All-Americans.

The class of 1957 was kept busy welcoming political candidates to campus. Both presidential aspirants, incumbent Dwight

BAND DAY

Tates Creek High Band

Bryan Station High Band

Today is one of the University of Kentucky "Wildcat" Marching Band's biggest days, for today they will host all four of Lexington's high school marching bands for halftime.

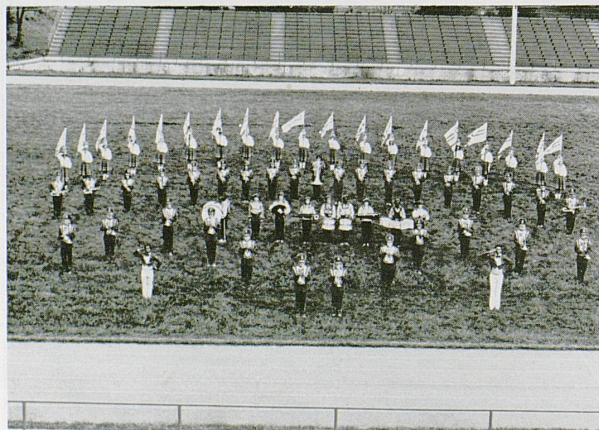

Band members from Bryan Station, Henry Clay, Lafayette, and Tates Creek will be present along with the 260 University of Kentucky band members to cover the field with the entire spectrum of colors. Each band will be wearing their respective school's colors, making for one of the most spectacular sights ever seen by Kentucky fans.

At halftime, all five bands enter the field together to begin today's combined performance. After playing the first fanfare, each band will be introduced separately and will march from one of the four corners to meet the U. K. band in the center of the field.

There the bands will play "Aztec Fire" by Jay Bocook. Next the bands will perform "Sing, Sing, Sing," a swing chart from the "Big Band" era. Then as traditionally done in past years, all five bands will combine to play "My Old Kentucky Home," the favorite of every true Kentuckian.

The bands would like to invite you to sing along with us to make this the most special part of today's performance.

HOW DO YOU KNOW YOUR MOTOR OIL WILL STAND UP TO THE KIND OF DRIVING YOUR DO?

Your car is expensive. And it deserves protection by a top quality motor oil. But since you can't watch your motor oil at work, how do you know its doing a top quality job?

At Quaker State, we put it in writing. We back up our quality with a lifetime guarantee. We guarantee every new car engine against oil-related failure for as long as you own your car and use Quaker State. For details, and coverage, write Quaker State, Warranty Department, Oil City, PA 16301.

And you don't have to buy a new car to benefit from Quaker State quality. When you put Quaker State in your car — old or new — you're putting in America's quality motor oil. Made only from Pennsylvania Grade Crude Oil.

STADIUM INFORMATION

First Aid—The University of Kentucky provides, for your convenience and welfare, First Aid Stations on the ground level on both sides of the stadium. On the West side is Room 156, the East side, Room 172. An ambulance is available at each corner of the stadium. Twenty doctors on duty are spotted in each section and are easily accessible to Boy Scouts and ushers. Two golf cart ambulances are equipped for immediate aid and located on the second level on each side of the stadium. Persons with any type of chronic medical problem are requested to leave their name and seat location with the nurse on duty at either First Aid station. A person in need of assistance with a health emergency should report the situation immediately to the nearest Boy Scout or usher.

Cardiac Care—In cooperation with the University Medical Services, the University of Kentucky provides a cardiac resuscitation program.

Crowd Noise Penalty—Uncontrolled crowd noise can result in a five-yard penalty against your team. Please observe quarterback and official's signals for quiet.

No Horns—Horns are not permitted in Commonwealth Stadium and will be picked up at the gates. Be considerate and allow your neighbor to enjoy the game. Keep portable radios at a low volume.

Liquors—Alcoholic beverages are strictly prohibited within the stadium as are all food and drink containers including hard surfaced materials of any type—bottles, cans, thermos bottles, ice bags, ice chests and any object related to above. Gate personnel are instructed to enforce this rule in the interest of safety.

Signs—Signs and barriers are restricted for Commonwealth Stadium in accordance with University regulations and policies established by the Public Safety Division.

A HISTORY

Commonwealth Stadium, the University of Kentucky's football facility, is located on an 86-acre tract on the Kentucky Experimental Station Farm grounds south of the main campus.

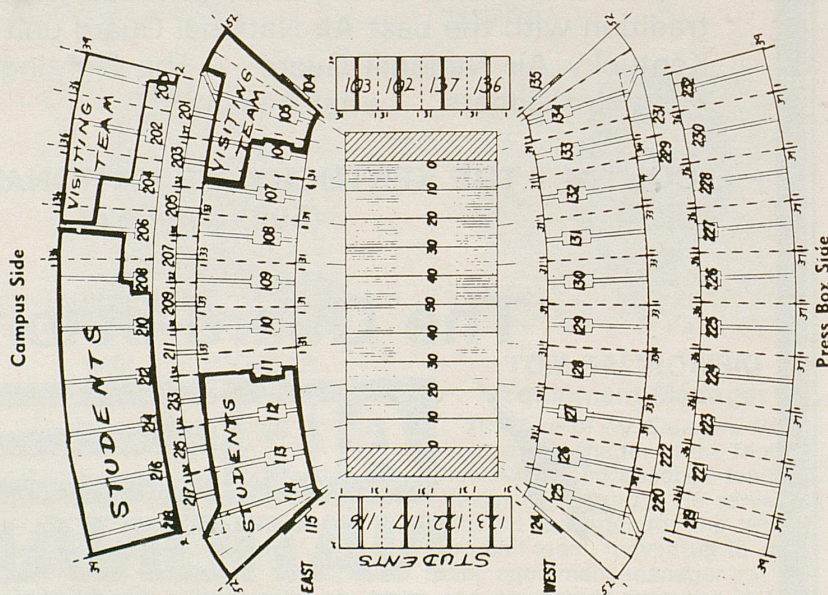

Completed in 1973, the concrete and steel cantilevered structure replaced Stoll Field, where Wildcat football teams had played since their beginning.

Constructed by Huber, Hunt and Nichols, Inc., the facility has a capacity of 50,000 sideline seats, with end zone bleachers swelling the total to 58,000.

This is Kentucky's 10th season at Commonwealth. The Wildcats beat Virginia Tech 31-26 in the first game in their new facility on Sept. 15, 1973.

General Ticket Policy for Stadium

- All persons must have a ticket.
- No pass out checks permitted at any gate.
- All sales final.
- Tickets cannot be refunded or replaced if lost, stolen or destroyed.
- The University of Kentucky Athletics Association reserves the right to revoke tickets by refund of purchase price.
- Holder of tickets to University of Kentucky athletic events agrees to abide by stadium and University policies.
- Tickets may not be sold on UK premises (parking lots, stadium grounds, etc.) except by authorized personnel.

UK CHEERLEADERS

The 1982-83 University of Kentucky cheerleading squad looks forward to each game with excitement and anticipation.

Co-captains Donald Ware and Julie Billington point to the enthusiasm generated by new football coach Jerry Claiborne as a key ingredient in the resurgence of "Big Blue Spirit" at Commonwealth Stadium.

Billington is a junior from Murray and is in her second year on the cheerleading squad. Ware hails from Louisville and majors in business administration.

Billington's partner is Jimmy Mortimer, a senior from Glasgow. Ware's partner is Holly Bankemper, a sophomore psychology major from Ft. Thomas.

Tates Creek High grad Lisa Perkins teams with Henry Clay High product Lee Ackiss. Lisa is a junior in math and education while Lee is a business and architecture senior in his third year on the squad.

Tom Creasey of Paris works with another Bates Creek alumnus, Kim Calvert. Creasey is working on a master's degree in civil engineering and Calvert is a junior in physical therapy.

Another three-year veteran on the squad is Steve Gibson, also a Bates Creek grad. Gibson is a junior in recreation and his partner, Lorea Towery, is a senior in family studies. Lorea was graduated from Lake Oswego High in Oregon.

Still another Bates Creek representative is Jeff Gothard, a senior education major. Gothard's partner is Tomi Anne Blevins, a senior in English and pre-law from Williamson, West Virginia.

Alternates are Tammy Jo May, a sophomore in fashion merchandising from South Shore and Louisville product Bill Horsman, a junior in accounting.

The UK mascot for 1982-83 is Dean Paris, a senior physical education major from Grand Rapids, Mich.

SPORTS INFORMATION

RUSSELL RICE
Sports Information
Staff Director

Russell Rice is in his 14th year as sports information director at UK. Rice took the job after serving two years as an assistant to Ken Kuhn. Rice came to UK from the Lexington Leader, where he was a general reporter eight years and sports editor five years.

A native of Paintsville, he won letters in football, basketball and baseball at Van Lear High. After serving in the Marines in World War II, he attended Kentucky Wesleyan College and received his bachelor's at UK in 1951.

He has served as manager of the NCAA Mideast Basketball Tournament and chairman of the Basketball Hall of Fame Committee of the College Sports Information Directors Association and was recipient of the 1971 Churchmen's "Sportswriter of the Year" award.

Rice has actively pursued his hobby of researching Kentucky basketball and football the past 15 years and has written several books based on his work. Rice recently completed his second year as president of the Blue Grass (Ky.) chapter of the U. S. Harness Writers Association.

RANDY STACY
Assistant Sports
Information Director

Randy joined the sports information staff in August, 1980, after three years as sports information director at Tennessee Tech. Prior to joining the staff at TTU, he earned a bachelor's degree from Morehead State and served as that school's SID.
