It was estimated 700 Ethiopians and 40 native soldiers in the Italian colonial forces were killed in the latest series of engagements.

CHURCH REUNION URGED

Vatican City, Feb. 11.—(INS)—Praying that the "Bull" which took and one pastor, Pope Pius today had renewed his invitation to the Church of England to become reunited with the Roman Catholic Church, his indirect plea came yesterday with the formal inclusion of Sir Thomas More—author of "Utopia"—and John Cardinal Fisher on the Church's list of martyrs.

INFANT STILL LIVES

Grantville, Ill., Feb. 11.—(INS)—Displaying a vitality that astounds physicians, tiny 14-day-old Robert Jenkins, who has been unable to take nourishment since birth because of a strictured esophagus, continued to cling to life today. Bernard Jenkins, of Nameoki, Illinois, father of the infant, was told he was attending to the child, but that the child may live another week, although little hope is held out for recovery. The boy has lost little weight in the past few days and seems only a little weaker, physicians declare.

KENTUCKY TOYS WITH TECH FIVE

Wildcats' Regulars Play 15 Minutes; Understudies Carry On to Win, 27 to 30

"BABY LEROY" IS STAR

Toying with the Georgia Yellow Jackets for 15 minutes, time enough to run up a 24 to 3 score, the Kentucky Wildcats regulars played their remaining time over to their "understudies" who carried on in fine style and sent the Jackets home Saturday night on a score of 27 to 30. Mainly because "Big Ed" Edwards and Dave Lawrence, Wildcat scoring stars remained in the game such a short time the Cats saw the enemy take high scoring honors for the night. Hyder, Tech center, collected twelve points, scoring four field goals and sinking four out of seven free throws. He barely nosed out "Duke" Ellington, Wildcat substitute guard, who tallied five field goals and one free throw, for a total of 11 points. Lewis, with 10 points, and Edwards and Lawrence with nine points each were high point men for the Big Blue.

The Wildcats showed again Saturday night that they could score from the free throw line as well as from the field, making 11 of the 19 gratis tosses awarded them. The Yellow Jackets were less accurate, being able to make only eight of the sixteen awarded them. Each team lost a man via the personal foul route, Carlisle for Kentucky, and Glenn for Georgia Tech. Fifteen fouls were called against the Wildcats while Tech was guilty of 11 "errors."

Professor Bigge Is Granted Leave

German Department Head Is Given Scholarship To Study In Germany

Dr. Adolph E. Bigge, head of the German department at the University, has been granted a sabbatical leave for 1935-36 by the executive committee of the University and will accept a scholarship which has been extended him by the University of Heidelberg in Germany. Dr. and Mrs. Bigge, and their two children, Adolph, 8, and Marie, 3, will leave for Germany about September 1, and will remain in that country for the entire school year of about 10 months. The subject suggested by the German Institution for Dr. Bigge's study is "Student Housing Problems in German Higher Institutions of Learning." Under the German system, the students of the various higher institutions spend considerable time during the year visiting their living quarters as well as at a minimum as the dormitories are government-supported to a large degree. It will be Dr. Bigge's problem to study the advantages of this cooperative housing method. Bigge received his bachelor and master of arts degrees from the University of Michigan. He first lectured at the University of Wisconsin in 1925-26 as an instructor in German. During the school year 1929-30 he obtained a leave of absence from the University and returned to Michigan and completed his work for his doctor of philosophy degree. He then returned to Kentucky, and in June, 1934, was made head of the German department.

DRASTIC CHANGE IN TEUTO ARMY POLICY IS SEEN

Compulsory Military Service For Able German Men To Be Revised

NEW ARMY BASED ON PRE-WAR SYSTEMS

Richwehr Official States That Germany Will Not Deviate From Stand Berlin, Feb. 11.—(INS)—A powerful and well equipped German army, its ranks swelled by the expected revival of compulsory military service, is definitely heralded by the Reichwehr. It became apparent today. Picture of a German mailed first strong enough to repulse any invader, and a bold challenge to the rest of the world to disarm, and return to the status quo ante bellum, can be seen between the lines of an article penned by Major Josef of the Reichwehr ministry. "The internal external barriers of the by-gone German army system have been torn down, and the road is free again for a development transforming the national defense forces into a national school," the Major writes. "In plain words, he means that the new German army will be based on a pre-war conscription basis, subjecting every youth liable to military service, or some similar move, Major Josef continues: "No solid front of others, no diplomatic pressure, no old or fresh military alliances, will be able to make Germany deviate from her new defense policy. History passed over the 'French No' of April 17, 1934, and developments will frustrate any future attempts at turn (Continued on Page Four)

RUTH WEHLE STARS IN OPENING OF 'THE SWAN'

ELIZABETH ANN MILLARD whether Agt or Albert will win, in the short run, the hand, if not the heart, of Alexandra. It is difficult to conceive of her really loving either of them—the tutor-hero, a rather tiresome-timorous lover, and Albert, a sort of prince in name only. An outstanding characterization is that of William R. Sutherland in the role of Father Hyacinth, brother of the Prince Beatrice, and Symphora, and uncle to Alexandra. He is the family moderator and his role is to be seen in the first act during a conference with Beatrice regarding Alexandra and Albert, who is a guest at the castle. The play is very unique and attractive, quite rich in appearance, and very artistic. The sets are pale green, the furniture gold, upholstered in white, peach, and light green. Candles, crystal chandeliers, and the cost of the play on the mantelpiece show the set off to great advantage. Malcolm Shotwell, who, with his assistants, has done a great deal of credit for the lovely picture he has created. Both Dowling Wehle in the role of Alexander-remind some of a swan-cool, proud, and remote. Her costume may enroll Professor M. E. Lago, director of the bureau, and Miss Catherine Hammack, secretary, will enroll and advise study in Room 115 of the Training School (Continued on Page Four)

Men's Glee Club Presents Sunday Music Program

Selections By Verdi, Haydn, Guion, and Elgar Are Included

The University Men's Glee club was presented in concert Sunday afternoon at Memorial hall. Prof. Carl A. Lampert, head of the music department at the University, was conductor. The program was composed of selections by Verdi, Haydn, Guion, Victor Herbert, Elgar, and Elgar. Miss Rudyell, who accompanied the club members. The featured soloist of the afternoon was Miss Dorothy Compton, lyric soprano, who sang "One Fine Day" from "Madame Butterfly" and "Italian Street Song" from the musical comedy, "Naughty Marietta." In the first number, Miss Compton was accompanied at the piano by Miss Elizabeth Hardin, and for her second number, she was accompanied by the double quartet from the glee club. Miss Mary Rudyell, harpist, who has been heard previously at the Sunday afternoon concerts, contributed charmingly to the program by playing the brilliant "Gypsy Dance" and an encore played Schult's "In the Garden." Miss Rudyell was accompanied by Miss Anne Goodkoots, who also was pianist for the Glee club members. Mr. William Conley and Mr. John Sweeney, tenor soloists, sang "Mother Mine" and "Silly Aron" respectively. Both of these young men are seniors and are singing with the University Glee club as undergraduates this semester. For the closing number, the club sang the ever-popular "Land of Hope and Glory" by Elgar, and in this number was accompanied by the brass sextet. The Men's Glee club is an organization that indicated by their presentation of the program Sunday that these undertakings are a pleasure and their loyalty to their conductor, to whom their success is attributed, is very obvious.

Big Blue Extended To Vanquish Scraggy 'Bama Team, 25 to 16

De Moisey, Sale To Bring Teams To Games at UK

Grayson, Lawrenceburg High Schools Will Meet At Alumni Gymnasium Thursday Two high school basketball teams, each coached by one of Kentucky's greatest court stars, will meet in an exhibition game in the University of Kentucky gymnasium Thursday night. The teams are Kavanagh High school of Lawrenceburg, coached by the great Forrest "Angie" Sale, and Grayson High school, coached by the famous "Big Ed" DeMoisey. The game will start at 8 o'clock. The two teams appear to be evenly matched and should provide the fans with some real thrills. Both DeMoisey and Sale are former players of Kentucky's great coach, Adolph Rupp, and teach the same style of play. DeMoisey is the exponent of the famous free wheeling shot, and in all probability has taught his pupils some of his tricks. Both teams possess several men above the average height of high school players. The centers of the two teams are well over six feet. J. Searcy, probably the smallest man on the Kavanagh team, is a "sure shot" on making baskets. In an exhibition game played at Lawrenceburg against a group of former Kavanagh stars, including "Burr" Borries and Dornin, present members of the Navy's cage team, Searcy hit the hoops for a number of points. Admission will be 35 cents, or 25 cents with student ticket books.

"Big Ed" Edwards Again In High Point Man With Twelve Markers

CATS LEAD 11-10 AT HALF-WAY MARK Capacity Crowd Jams Alumni Gym to See Cats Play Year's Fastest Game Coach Adolph Rupp's Wildcat varsity was forced to the utmost to overcome Alabama's victory-crazed basketball forces 25-16, last night in one of the best played games of the season in Alumni gym, before a capacity crowd. Until midway in the last half, it was a see-saw battle, with the team able to gain any commanding advantage. Close guarding on both sides of the ball was mainly responsible for the low scoring. Only "Big Ed" Edwards and Jack Tucker grabbed a loose ball under the hoop one from the side to put the Tide in the van, 6-3. Because of the persistent guarding of the Alabama team, the Cats could not get inside the foul line to shoot and the period was nearly all dribbled in. The Cats scored on a perfect set-up play. Dave Lawrence followed with his only shot of the night, when he sank a beautiful one-hand try from the foul line. After Whitley had scored, Warfield, Dunlone, and Crisp, in that order, from the blackboard and dribbled the entire length of the floor to put the Wildcats in a 11-10 lead at the half ended. Coming back after intermission, the Big Blue team appeared more (Continued on Page Four)

STAFF MEMBER RETURNS TO U. K.

Professor P. H. Clyde Takes Up Duties In Hyde Department After Eighteen Months Absence

Prof. Paul H. Clyde of the History department resumes his duties at the University after an absence of 18 months. For the past 18 months of that period he was engaged in research work under grant of the South Manchuria railroad, a Japanese corporation. Most of the work of the expedition in the Orient was done in the Japanese mandated islands in the Pacific, the Marshall, Caroline, and Mariana groups, former possessions of Germany. Recently charges have been made in certain newspapers of this country that Japan is fortifying the islands, in violation of the mandate terms. A League of Nations commission has just returned from the far East, where it had been sent for the purpose of investigating the situation. The commission's report is now available. This timely question, Doctor Clyde is about to publish a book, expected to appear at bookstores in the month of March, and in the month, Macmillan will be the publisher, the title, "Japan's Pacific Mandates." When interviewed, the author made the following statement: "These islands have become somewhat noteworthy because of newspaper charges that they have been fortified contrary to the terms of the mandate; and because a legal question has been raised as to whether a nation which withdraws from the League can continue to be a mandatory. Also they are of strategic value with relation to the Philippines."

TOURNEY'S FATE UP TO ALABAMA

Entry of Crimson Tide Only Insurance of Event's Financial Success As Vandy, Cats Drop Out

MAY DROP TOURNAMENT

The fate of the Southeastern conference basketball tournament this year lies in the hands of Alabama, whose participation in the heretofore annual tourney is the only insurance of a financial success of the meet, as Kentucky and Vanderbilt will not be able to enter the tournament because of late scheduled games. This information, coming as an aftermath of the annual meeting of the conference in Nashville last Friday and Saturday, was disclosed when it was announced by Coach Hank Crisp of Nashville last Saturday that he would have to receive permission from Coach Frank Thomas to enter the tournament. Coach Crisp said that several of the football stars, members of the basketball squad, would be needed for spring football practice, which would begin shortly, probably before the tournament was scheduled to be played. It was voted at the meeting of the conference to continue the annual tournaments in basketball, track, golf, boating, swimming, and tennis this year. The date of the annual meeting of the conference was changed from February to December.

YESTERDAY AND TODAY, TOMORROW

Today is the anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln... There will appear the usual large number of editorials...

All of us are familiar with the life and deeds of the "Great Emancipator"... The shadow of his greatness is still visible across the stage...

ORIENTATION

As one winds his way about the campus day by day he is confronted with student after student who ask the questions...

Such a continuous outburst of humor, serious or in the spirit of humor, prompts one to wonder how much foundation there is for such statements...

Let us consider the situation from both angles—the position of the student and the position of the authorities...

What is the cause of this situation? Upon observation we find that most students have no idea of what they should make their life's work because they have not been instructed in this...

What is the key to the situation? Perhaps some form of vocational guidance in high school or prep school would be of value...

In the University Commons have been placed various scenes of Student Union buildings from other campuses and which seem to hold little or no interest to the average student...

THE GOLD CLAUSE

The Supreme Court of the United States has reviewed four cases in the last three weeks...

The first case to be brought up for hearing was that of Norman C. Norman, manufacturing jeweler of New York City...

"Public Resolution No. 10, enacted by the Seventy-third Congress," said Emanuel Redfield in pleading for Mr. Norman...

Frederick H. Wood, attorney for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad took the floor for the defense...

With these two views in mind we turn to find that the government's brief has estimated the fabulous figures involved...

Even with this increase of the government's debt and anyone else's debts, would it be fair to the layman who had good faith in receiving full value when he contracted for gold bonds...

Homer S. Cummings, Attorney General of the United States expressed the Federal view and pictured the crisis in the Spring of 1933...

"This is not a case of Federal activity reaching out into a private area," he continued, "These gold clauses have invaded the Federal field..."

In a last plea Attorney-General Cummings made the simple statement that the government had acted as a matter of supreme necessity...

JEST AMONG US

As far The Jester is concerned the eclipse was a total flop. It wasn't even good enough to keep the sun out of his eyes...

The fellow who remarked that college bread meant a four-year loaf probably didn't realize that the baker who sold the stale bread was also a college man...

Personally, we don't see anything so mysterious about the murder of that "loaf" bread...

One of the main objections to the sales tax is that everytime you think you feel a dime in your pocket it turns out to be a penny...

Now that permits are being issued for daytime parking on the campus, we wonder what the chances are of getting a permit for a little nighttime parking...

Unfortunately the "witch" who was sentenced to death lived in Europe. In America she would have had a vaudeville contract by this time...

"Notorious gangster taken in Louisiana"—headline. He's just one of the many people who are being 'taken' in that state.

INSTANT INTERVIEWS

By RANDY RASH

The answers to the questions asked for this edition were obtained directly from the members of the faculty and the rest were gotten by telephoning each fraternity and speaking with some anonymous active in the chapter.

QUESTION: What changes would you advise in the present conventional set-up of "hellweek?"

ANSWER: Dr. Frank L. McVey, "I would say that 'hellweek' is a survival of pioneer conditions. It continues largely because the last group that went through it hopes to be welcomed since they are to bear the burden for four years, and they ought not be subjected to punishment and personal indignities."

ANSWER: Dean T. T. Jones, "At least take all the danger out of it."

ANSWER: Dean P. F. Boyd, "It should be abolished; there should be no public exhibition of initiatory and pre-initiatory exercises."

ANSWER: Dean Sarah G. Blanding, "Not have it. It is altogether unnecessary at all matters, and very evident of the mob spirit."

ANSWER: Dean W. D. Funkhouser, "Abolish it altogether."

ANSWER: Dean Sarah Holmes, "I would advise its abolition."

And here we have the other side.

ANSWER: Alpha Gamma Rho, "The present set-up is ok with me."

ANSWER: An Alpha Lambda Tau, "I am not much in favor of it."

ANSWER: An Alpha Sig, "It seems to me that it hurts one more to see the other fellow go through with it, than it did yourself, and so I would say it's not keen."

ANSWER: An ATO, "Less padding."

ANSWER: Delta Chi, "I can't think of any I like just as it is."

ANSWER: A Delta, "Well... I don't believe I would advise any changes."

ANSWER: A K. A., "It should be given more supervision. A committee should be chosen to make out a plan for the week and if the chapter accepted it, it should be the program, instead of a helter-skelter way of using all the various ideas of the actives at various times. The best thing about 'hellweek' is that everyone gets to know everyone else so much better."

ANSWER: A Kappa Sig, "I am not really interested in 'hellweek' since I am through with it."

ANSWER: A Lambda Chi, "I would establish the same week for all fraternities and have a committee of one member from each fraternity to make a set of rules for conduct."

ANSWER: A Pi K. A., "I don't know of any changes."

ANSWER: A Phi Delta, "I think all the horseplay and foolishness should be done away with, and the initiates put to doing some useful work around the house."

ANSWER: A Phi Tau, "I would suggest that the freshmen bathe, shave, and dress properly each day. They should attend all their classes regularly. They should say 'Sir' and 'graciously toward all the actives. For any misconduct on their part they should receive a suitable number of licks."

ANSWER: A Phi Sig, "Personally I think that the extremes that the fraternities go to in excessive whipping should be abolished. The sending of the pledges on impossible missions once or twice is all right as a disciplinary measure, but a lot of good hard work around the

SHOP SIGHTS

By MARY REES LAND

Gentlemen, take notice! Thursday is it, Valentine Day, when women just naturally like to receive some gifts or remembrances.

Besides the traditional red, Mrs. Thomas Candles shop is using all-weather paper but which still looks like an old fashioned valentine is the dainty little candy corsage made up on a heart cut card. It may be used as a party favor, placecard, or valentine.

Beggar's has a book locket of blue on a silver incased link bracelet. The locket opens and contains a place for a small picture. Need more be said? A serene bracelet is of alternating links of incased silver and genuine jade. One could write a real rime poem to accompany the tiny cloisonne box of perfumed salve. If "cloisonne" bothers you, commit Mr. Webster as I had to. Provided the recipient of your Valentine is chic like the Lucky Strike girl, the set of a lighter and a cigarette case would be appropriate. It is of black enamel trimmed by silver bands with a place for engraving.

W. A. A. members and other sports enthusiasts will like the "Post & Rail" shirts at Embury's. They come in the regulation white and in colored silks. They are made long so that you can swing a golf club or bend over without the blouse and skirt separating. Spring blouses are mostly tailored, and they run to cottons like pique and gingham. There is also a new loose woven material called "cherry cloth". The gingham's are made with a deep pointed Peter Pan collar, patch pocket, glass buttons down the front, and short sleeves with a fan plait. They fit closely at the waist and may be worn inside or out.

Just as ten years ago, rainy days, which there was nothing to do, used to drive me into the kitchen to help; so Saturday I had to wander on Purcell's china department. They have the gayest Scotch plate Sunday night supper sets. These are newly imported articles, including great round hostess plates Marmalade Jar, salad bowls, and best of all a cheese dish the top of which slants to fit the cheese. They may be purchased individually. Ash trays and cigarette boxes of Healy class can be monogrammed for you at this store in a week's time.

CRYPTOGRAPH

Collegiate Digest

You may or may not know anything about deserts or anything connected with them, but we believe that you should have no trouble in working this Cryptograph. As usual, we'll tell you that it is concerned with a beautiful maiden, a lieutenant, and that the scene of the romance, if it can be called such, is the biggest desert in the world. If it doesn't help you, just watch for the answer in next week's Kernel. Here is the story, you read the solution:

ABCDEF GHIJKLMNOP
Q RSTUVWXYZ
ABCDEFGHIJKLMN O PQRST
UVWXYZ
And just to cheer you up a bit over your last week's efforts, we will tell you that you were correct when you worked out the last puzzle to read:

Puzzle fan reading "The Gisors," avers Lord Byron too must have been amateur cryptographer.

The teams are within the range of college quinquettes... Kavanagh lost the early season game by a two point margin.

"Frenchy" is fairly confident in his own right... He is now in law school making standings around "2".

The defeat of New York University by Yale last week will probably eliminate further possibility of a return game between N. Y. U. and Kentucky.

The selection, buying and preparation of the right kinds of Turkish tobacco for making Chesterfield Cigarettes is a business in itself...

WE have buyers in all the tobacco markets of Turkey and Greece, including Xanthi, Cavalla, Smyrna and Samsoun. And at Smyrna Chesterfield has built the most modern tobacco plant in the Near East. Here the spicy, aromatic Turkish leaf is sorted and graded under the eyes of our own tobacco men. Then it is put away to age in its own climate for two years or more to make it milder and better-tasting. When you blend and cross-blend the right kinds of aromatic Turkish tobacco with mild ripe home-grown tobaccos as we do in Chesterfield you have... the cigarette that's milder the cigarette that tastes better
