October 14th.

The Faculty met as usual.

Mr. T. Mafford requested that he be excused from attending Chapel on Sunday afternoon; but his request was not granted. Messrs. W. S. Baker and J. N. Foster appeared before the Faculty for neglect of orders given by Maj. Tibbitts, in regard to the slop of Club No. - Mr. Foster made an impudent speech to the Faculty, from which it was evident that he was trying to create a difficulty with Regent Brown in regard to the slop.

Mr. Baker made no speech, but endorsed what Mr. F. had said. The general conduct of each of these Young men was reduced to 20¢. Major Tibbitts stated that several other members of Club No. - were disposed to make some difficulty in regard to allowing the stop of the Club to be disposed of as he had directed.

It was then resolved that Club No. — be required to conform to the general police regulation as prescribed by the Commandant.

Messrs. H. A. Bennett and N. F. Mc. Bray were before the Faculty, charged with having thrown stones against one of the Club-houses a few nights previous.

After an examination of the facts in the case it was evident that the young gentlemen were innocent of the charge. Mr. Potter was reported by Prof. Kern for continual disorder in his classes. Mr. J. H. Mc. Garvey Jr. was reported by Mr. Smith for being tardy in attending classes. ~~They~~ ^{They} were required to attend more faithfully to ^{his} their duties.

(Owing to a mistake made by the Sec., the resolution, passed at the last meeting, in regard to Mr. Inge, was not announced in the Chapel.) The President read a communication from Mr. Inge, in which he asked a reconsideration of his case. He promised to discharge faithfully all of his duties if he would be allowed to remain in the College. After duly considering the case it was ^{resolved} that, instead of his being publicly dismissed, he should be publicly reprimanded and that his general standing be reduced 20%.

Mr. Tibbitts stated that he had heard from the authorities at ~~Harrington~~ in regard to the matter referred to in these minutes under the date Sept. 24th. Not being able to place a man on his oath, Mr. Denton's case was dismissed and he was notified of that fact. Mr. Dorsey presented an application, from his guardian, for an honorable dismissal. The application coming in due form and his record being good the discharge was granted. The Faculty then adjourned.
