My dear Goss,

Many thanks for your letter about Danis. I could not come to you this morning, as I had to race off to the City. For the next day or two, I shall not be able to go into the matter; but I am, for the moment, dreadfully doubtful whether anything I have is worth reprinting in any form. It seems such facts & rubbish when I read it; and you are so remarkably prompt.

Always yours

Walter D. W.
