

King's Head Hotel
Sandown
Isle of Wight

3 ep. 28/93

Dear Mr. Rivers,

I shall be here for another week, so cannot keep my engagement for the 2nd If I have been the means of preventing your giving any one else
a lesson, pray let me know — you must not be a loser by me.

Very truly yours,
L Dodson

King's Head Hotel
Sandown, Isle of Wight
Sep. 28/73

Dear Mr. Rivers,

I shall be here for another week, so cannot keep my engagement for the 2nd. If I have been the means of preventing your giving anyone else a lesson, pray let me know - you must not be a loser by me.

Very truly yours,

C. L. Dodgson

9270(a)

DODGSON, CHARLES LUTWIDGE ["Lewis Carroll"] (1832-1895). Author and mathematician.
Sandown, Isle of Wight.

A.N.S. to Mr. Rivers. 28 Sept. 1873. 1p. (half of a double sheet, octavo.) On mourning stationery.

He is unable to keep an appointment for a lesson on 2 Oct., and expects to pay for it anyway, if Rivers loses by the arrangement. Rivers may have been instructing Carroll in photography; the letter is written from the author's favorite summer resort on the Isle of Wight.