Hampstead Heath.

My dear Will,

I'm glad you like my cobby in the wood - the original is at your disposal - price 10 guineas if you prefer a replica larger, I will do one - but should then have to charge you 20! I think however you will be satisfied with this, which is the size of the punch cut, (which is a fair much of it). I saw the same & oddly enough another artist probably saw it too for he has the same week (read)

The same subject, in "Finn".
There was a crowd round the herd, & much laughter.

Thanks for suggestion of the war coming over the harbours & did such a scene at which this tent day was or September, in Dutch - & called it "the seventh war".

Hamburgh has been looking very well, & may be now - but we can't see it for the fog - it has been invisible all last week.

We ~~are~~ know & appreciate well, & love it - and have often been there - in Royal presence
