

Edgewoodstown

July 21st 1838

To Mess<sup>rs</sup> Tennant, Lowe & Co Gentlemen,

I fear that I made an omission in the acceptance of the Bill of Ex which you enclosed to me a few days ago. Our Land agent has since pointed out to me that I ought not only to have written my name on the back of the Bill but that I ought to have written where payable -

If <sup>it</sup> ~~there~~ be essential that you should return the bill to me to have this written in my own hand you will please to endorse it in a letter to be directed to

J. Col. Goske

Dublin Castle

and he will forward it to me I return it to you by the next post -

The bill will be payable whenever presented at
J. B. Ball & Co. Exch. Bankers, Avery Street Dublin where provision for it has been made - & advice given -

Perhaps this may be sufficient without your having the trouble to return the bill.
I am for my writing upon it payable at J. B. Ball's Dublin

I shall be glad if you can be saved the trouble - But you will do whatever you think proper

I am gentlemen
Yours obed<sup>t</sup> & faithful serv<sup>t</sup> Margaretta
