Dear Mrs. Westcott,

I enclose a letter of Webster the painter, who is a friend of ours. Fittis & Ruskin's I have I fear given away. I also enclose a bit of Miss Nightingale's writing - the direction of a letter. I believe she never signs her name at length. I also ^{enc} ~~put~~ ~~to~~ ^{close} autographs of Dr. Hincks (the

Dr. Shailor, Assyrian scholar), " & the Bp of Calcutta. If you have not got Maurice's & Kingsley's, I can supply them.

I find that all my best have been given away, but when ever I get me I will send it you.

Believe me, my dear Mrs. Westcott,

Very truly yours,

Frederic W. Farrar.
