My dear Mrs Hall

Many thanks for your kind note.

I was very anxious to hear how our invalid was - and have been asking at 186 without very definite response from the pack.

How thank you

granted that this is a sandy tempering subject anoyance - the result of carelessness which I hope you rebuke. My only fear of you as a nurse is, that your rebukes are not sufficiently strong.

I will write to you again another day next week as soon as I hear that you are so. I mean which you ~~mean~~ by any kindest regards
I write in a
