

ROSEMOUNT,
94, WINDMILL STREET,
GRAVESEND,
KENT.

1st May 1936

Dear Sir Humphrey.

I was delighted at getting your letter & at once sent off gleefully for the tickets. I also posted off this morning the "Thorndyke" omnibus book & hope that it will reach you safely. When you have finished it (if you ever do), I think you will have had enough of Thorndyke to last for the rest of your life.

Yours very sincerely

R Austin Freeman