THE MOLT,
SALCOMBE,
KINGSBRIDGE.

June 16

Dear Sir Baldwin,

I hope you have
conjectured from my silence that I shall be out of town in less than two months ago & make a long
country summer of it.

Now you see it will be impossible for me to accept

Your kind invitation for either of two days which you name. Next winter if you are then in London I hope I
may see something of you again. It is as you say a long time since
we met.

Yours faithfully
J A Bards
