

for, and I am unwilling to add to this number

I fear therefore I cannot ask you to send me
the article which you

refer.

What a prospect seems to be before us!

I thought the recent declaration of war the wallest thing of the kind that ever was done - and France apparently means to outdo it.

When seen with. . .

we shall go to war

because we are afraid