America. but I am afraid it will be
for a long while yet.
I hope you will come back next year. I stay with us for something more than the few days you gave us
this summer.

Believe me,

Yours very sincerely

Dear Mrs Botte.

You were kind enough to ask for our photographs before you left us at the Hotel. They did not turn out particularly well, but I send you
the best of myself.
The side face is not at all good.

We only came back from Salcombe last Friday after a most beautiful summer. We did not part with our boats
till well into October and it was delicious
to give up to the last.
I hope you

did not have a bad
passage out: the weather seemed to break just at the beginning of September, and we were afraid you would have come in for it.
I have not quite given up all hopes of persuading my father to take me out to
