

Private

August. 14. 87

Dear Sir Baldwin Leighton

I am much obliged to you for your interesting letter upon the

The question is not in a hopeful condition. It can only be settled by agreement: & the two parties who have to agree are at present poles apart. Yours very truly Salisbury