

I know of his work in Paris, but I would like to hear something of his general ability and personal characteristics otherwise. Among others, he says that he devilled for you at times while you weré still at the Bar. If you remember him, will you very kindly let me have your opinion of him, confidentially?

Yours very truly,

Eric Lueders

The Rt. Hon. The Lord Moulton, G.B.E., K.C.B., 57, Onslow Square,
S.W. 7.