My dear Madame,

I have no doubt the American Opera Company would have been glad to lend you its assistance in your noble enterprise, if it had been asked in time: but the Company moves to Boston to-morrow, and will be engaged every day thence after, in different cities, until June.

The Executive Committee on the Pedestal, whose last meeting I was unable to attend, have resolved, I am told, not to make any more appeals to the Public directly: but it will welcome and approve, I have no doubt, any outside help that may be tendered to it. You are undertaking, and that of the 22^d Regiment in Mad Cdn Square Garden, will must wish, but the Committee in a condition to finish the Pedestal, and raise the Statue, without further disturbance.

Yours very truly
Patrick Gordon
