

Shelley's
letter in case
S. 11
I enclose you the note back again with the indorsement.

It is, as you observe, to be regretted, that you did not inform me of this disappointment on Saturday. If you could not have spared one of your boys, the penny-post would have brought your answer in time. I mentioned to you that I had a bill coming for payment this day, & a bill cannot be sent away: if it is not provided for from one resource, it must from another. You should therefore have given me time.

Since writing the above, I have borrowed money from a neighbour for my bill, till Wednesday. As, when I last saw you, you were so good as to say that you <sup>would</sup> take your banker's judgment on the inclosed the next morning, I trust you will be able to assist me to replace this sum on Wednesday. If not however, I must wait your time, & will call on you Monday next, three o'clock. I am, sir,

Monday, Nov. 4.

Your humble serv<sup>t</sup>.
