My dear Mr. Spielmann
Thank you for your kind letter. The reason why I do not wish my name to appear to the article on the Moslems is one which will at once commend itself to you -
the article
it speaks of what I have not seen with
my eyes, and it repeats

matter (referring to the colour of one of the compositions, and to the form of the church) which I mention only on the authority of the papers you sent me.

You will see
that this precludes me

from signing the article, which, nevertheless, I have written with at least as much care
as though my name
were to be printed
across it in capitals.

I shall hope
on some future oc-
