

0.220
Apropos of Buckhamstead;
if you don't recognize me

16 O.C. Bⁿ
Kinnel Park
Rhyd.

Dear Rice

William Nicholson (my father-in-law), W.J. Turner (man who writes on music in New Statesman & Land & Water, & wrote the great poem about Chimborazo; young chap, Australian) J.C. Squire whom you'll know, & myself are starting a miscellany called "The Pool" to be published now & then by Heinemann - We are having contribs from all the best people, old & young; Max Beerbohm, Massfield, Augustus John, James Pryde, Barrie, Arnold Bennett

Robert Graves

be no danger.

We should be very happy to give you a copy of "The Owl" when it's hatched: & some auto graphs.

I enclose two or three that you may like. ~~St James~~ ^{can't find it}
Massfield

Address is ^{Kennington}
the painter

W. Nicholson Esq

11 Appletree Yard

St James Sq -

London S.W.1

Am still with cadets but am soon getting a job in town

Good luck to you

Robert Graves

& good young people like Kennington: & all the poets —

My father-in-law has the idea of putting in anything that's "good fun" without any special politics: it's not a propaganda thing at all. But to be short: I told him about your Caldicott sketch & tentatively said you might lend it us for reproduction — He said it was worth asking you, if there was any chance. Can you trust it with us for a very short time? W.N. is very professional about taking care of things & there'd