Commiss. Holt House,
Oct. 26. 63

My dear Sir

I have no doubt that I can obtain for you all the information you require after. But I could do it more accurately, if I knew you were not seeking it for any adverse object to the interest of Mr. Berkeley; as I am acquainted with him, and his solicitor

Tell me how I shall act by return of post

Yours most truly
J. de Gutch
