Dear Mr Rees,

I now return a finally corrected proof of the Article.

Please acknowledge receipt.

The Subtitle is excellent.
I have suggested a better form of the main title, which please use if it is not inconsistent with your announcement of today. In that case you are free to use that in the proof.

I have had to exercise most careful care in the expressions employed in certain parts of this very delicate matter.

You have no objection, I understand, to my using it as part of a book next year - I shall of course acknowledge this courtesy in the respect.
Yours truly
Haldane
