My dear Sir

You have returned
My work charmingly
— admirably.

I had not perceived
the date and initials:
They are those of Mrs
Kell, mother

Sarah Hurley.
When a very young girl.
She could not have been more than 15 or 16
in 1787:
But she was a most accomplished as well as a most lovable

woman — a dear warm
and good woman to whom I gave a large portion of my heart
for 30 years.

You have given
great delight to her daughter by this intimation.

And she warmly
thinks you.

Of course I will be far from second
when you write it.

The letter you advised to all the persons mentioned in George's letter.
My sincere regards
for you.

Ever most truly
yours

S. P. M.
