

10 June 1927

31

MAX GATE,
DORCHESTER.

My dear Newbott:

Many thanks for your letter, even though the personal subject is unimportant, & getting less so every year! My wife sends her kind regards. We shall be glad to see you whenever you come this way again. Always yours, J.H.