

Beverly Farms, Mass.

August 20th 1887.

Dear Mr. Quaritch,

I have received two lovely volumes since I wrote to you, for which I most cordially thank you. I will not say that I have as yet read either of them, but I have looked through every page of both and I see how full of interest they are to one who can give the time such elaborate essays require.

I hope to send you my promised little volume very shortly.

Believe me

Very truly yours,

Oliver Wendell Holmes.