Dear Mr O'Brian,

I have had no photograph taken for many years, but in the ambition of decorating your vestry I enclose one which belongs to the time when I was writing A Shropshire Lad.

I am yours very truly

A. S. Horniman.

HOUSMAN, ALFRED EDWARD (1859-1936).
Poet and classicist, Cambridge.

A.L.S. to the Rev. Mr. Delos W. O'Brian.
3 Dec. 1932. 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ p. (double sheet, octavo.) with envelope

Mr. O'Brian had evidently written for a photograph. Housman replies by saying he has not had a picture taken for a long time, "but in the ambition of decorating your vestry", he is sending one made a long time ago, when he was writing A Shropshire Lad."
