

My Dear Sir
I have certainly 241 Beacon St. Boston.
Jan 19th 1894.
I have certainly

from your cause of complaint against me, having left a letter of yours so long without answer that to answer it now may seem quite superfluous. Neither have I much hope that you can do any thing for me at this time, so long after the date of your inquiring as to whether I

I may be able to do anything to answer for would go to Des Moines for two hundred dollars. I should be willing to do so if it could be arranged. You once wished me to go to Warr Blount, Ind. If you could some time combine these two occasions, it would be very good for me. Mrs Elliott's preparations for departure have taken up much of my attention. We sailed for Europe on Dec. 20th. I could now make some engagements for the latter part of February or the first week in March. When you wrote me, you did not say what your own charges would be. With-
