July 20, 1895.

Dear Mr. Fay:

I hope that
since you like one third of my story, <sup>you</sup> will like the other two books, if they should come under your eye in the December and January Campanella.
It is very good of you to write me, and I thank you.

Marishes usual - the
habitable in the winter,
since you are there? * But how habitable? We have thought of Long Island being very ill

respects of an old tie per round place. Is Marshall possible?

Yours sincerely
W. P. Howells.
