

Hotel Bellevue, Boston.

Oct. 29, 1908.

Dear Mrs. Larkin:

I would autograph my complete library edition for the Larkin family; but as Harper's seem in no hurry to publish it, perhaps you had better send me the books here which you wish written in. You shall surely not get off till Monday or Tuesday, and there will be abundant time.

Yours sincerely

W. D. Howells.
