6 July

Dear Sir

The fifty two Copies came safely but I had a Lord's brother in my room & could not get at the Print books. I shall however have them ready for next Messenger.

Mr Gray is a friend of mine & of Mr L's. The books are to be charged to either of us - another dozen is wanted in the same way for an Aunt of Mr L. at Gloucester. If you can send them by Thursday Morn here - they may be forwarded that day. The charge to the Author, who will pay you ^{over} (in that the way) what she owes. Yrs truly J. J. J. J. J.
