My dear Lilley

I am, pro tem, as much or rather more out of Town than you are - hence the difficulty of meeting.

I will read your M.S.
again & perform Critic as you desire, with great pleasure.

Thanks for the game. W<sup>r</sup> J. D. wd. guess whence it came & I think it is the only sample she has rec<sup>d</sup>. this Season.

If you incline to a quiet afternoon at Rutland, or elsewhere in the County, by dropping a note or speaking with my son W. F. J. at the L. G. office, we may arrange it Yours always W. S. Jordan
