

THE HISTORY OF INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITIONS.

(Under the Special Patronage of the Prince Consort.)

3 Torrington St
Torrington Square
W.C. Oct 23^d 1850

Madam. I should be much pleas'd if you would help the cause of the Female Medical College in your journal.

We are now striving to get good names attached to it.
As president of it - I shall give it my earnest attention.
Yours
J. E. D.

names, & money - must be had, to insure success.

Contributions to 'The Female Medical College Fund' are payable at the Unity Bank West Branch, Co. Country St., Hagermarket.
If you would state these points, & afford us your name, with those of any other known ladies, we should be much indebted to you. I have the honor to remain

Madam,

Your obed^t. Serv^t.

Blanchard Jerold