My dear Sam,

I have communicated with a friend the solicitor who introduced him to the office, and he tells me that these assurance shares, which are really valuable, should be applied to the payment of the debt. They might have been at first, and no hitch in the matter, but for - what seems - the besetting neglect of this young man. I write, as I should not be able to see you to-morrow, I regret, being a case of hardship. I hope I need not express my sense of annoyance that you should have been a moment bothered. Yours truly G. M. M.
