Dear Putnam:

Will you struggle
we know how this strikes you so that I may refer to Mr. Platt. Please sign your comment.

My impressions are not antagonistic to the changes save for their impracticability at this time.

But ~~for~~ "in his possession" doesn't go with "or sold" if they are trying to include copies sold which are no longer in possession.

I hardly think "urgency" can be claimed.

Of course neither you nor I can 50 speak for the League or even the governing bodies, which ought to be convened if this all is to be pushed.

These gentlemen are going to keep us on the jump!

Faithfully yours,

R. U. Johnson
