Dear Mr. Johnson:

I have to thank you for two kind letters, the latter informing me of the remission of my dues by the Executive Council. Will you be so good as to express my appreciation of this action to the Council.

I heartily wish I were able to contribute to the Club book. I approve of the project, but I am not yet in condition to work and if I am not able to send some acceptable verses soon I shall have to be excused altogether, which I shall much regret, as I always like to do my share.

With appreciation of your kind personal references believe me

Cordially and sincerely yours,

R. U. Johnson.
