My dear Davis:-

I think I told you that Mr. Gilder would like to use "A Man without a Past" - Mr. John D. Ruff's (Rough?) story - if the author will make the changes which Mr. Gilder desires. I understand the manuscript has been returned to Mr. Ruff, but it may have gone through you. If so, will you kindly indicate to him our inclination in the matter.

Very sincerely yours,

R. U. Johnson

Mr. R.H. Davis.
