Dear Sir,

Your verses were very pleasant, & I shall like to see more of them, I do not mean addressed to me.

I do not know whether you live in town or country, but if it suits your convenience I shall be glad to see you some evening - say Thursday - at 20 Great Russell Street, Court Garden. If you can come, do not trouble yourself to write. We are old fashioned people who drink tea at six or not much later, & give cold mutton & pickle at nine, the good old hour. I assure you (if it suits you) we shall be glad to see you - -

Yoursd. Lamb
