

Dear Co. The life of Dee is in English, <sup>1826</sup> in the 1st volume of Johannes. The bare life is contain'd in 50 Octavo ~~pages~~ pages; each page holds about 290 words, whereas your pages run to 360; but there are Dee's memorials to Queens Mary & Elizabeth, and something of his writing about some Voyager, which will extend it 13 or 14 pages more. You have only to send a copyist, who can give a ~~recommendation~~ reference to some Housekeeper, and the job will be most easy. The copyist has only to ask for

Johannes Confratriis Glassoniensis 1st vol.

Josias P Lamb

I don't want my name mention'd

He must not say he wants to copy a whole article <sup>ask leave</sup> only to read; & bring a MS book with him.
Pens<sup>es</sup> are bound

(Hogan sale)

9550

Mr Clarke
Messrs Hunt & Clarke
Fleet Street
Covent-garden

(Hogan Sale)

9550

Given me by C. W. W. with letter from Carlyle copied Dec: 1868. by W. Procter -

Eff. 1869.

The letter of Charles Lamb [vid. back of this page] I bought at Pettick & Simpson's March 23. 1869 for /30 -

