My dear Mr. Taylor
I shall be glad to hear from you

My dear Missop.

I cannot forbear Thanking you for your very kind interference with Taylor, whom I do not expect to see in haste at Islington.

It is hardly weather to ask a dog up here, but I need not say how happy we shall be to see you. I cannot be out of Lucrings till John Frost be rouled. we came home from Newman St the other night later & I was cramped all night
